Board Candidates Can Get Petitions

All school districts of the fourth class — including Tecumseh—which operate grades kindergarten through twelve, will soon have boards of education of seven members.

Four board members will be named here at the annual election in July.

Previously the board consisted of five members.

An incumbent board member may run for either one of the new four-year terms or as a candidate to succeed himself for a three-year term.

This must be designated at the time of nomination.

Recently—passed state Act 16 amends Sec. 55 of the School Code as follows:

"After the annual election or annual meeting in 1960, the board of all fourth class school districts operating grades kindergarten through 12 shall consist of seven members.

"At the annual election or annual meeting in 1960, the voters shall elect by ballot for a term of four years, two board members, and the voters shall elect by ballot for a term of three years successors to the members whose term of office shall expire.

"At the annual election or annual meeting thereafter, the voters shall elect for a term of four years successors to the members whose terms shall expire.

"After the rotation is established, not more than two members shall be elected in any one year to fill vacancies occurring by expiration of terms."

Dwight Hodges, flow treasurer of the board of education, and Aden Mead, now vice-president of the board, are members of the board whose terms of office expire this year.

Persons who desire to become candidates for membership to the board must file petitions with the secretary of the board, Dr. R. F. Helzerman, by June 11, 1960 at 4 p.m.

Qualifications for candidates are as follows:

Must be a school elector, that is, he must be 21 years of age, a citizen of the United States, and a resident of this district for 30 days next preceding said election.

His name must appear on the assessment roll as the owner in his own right of the property assessed.

To obtain the printing of his name on the ballot, said candidate shall file a petition signed by not less than 50 nor more than 75 registered school electors of this district.

No elector shall sign the petition for more candidates than are to be elected.

Petitions may be obtained from the office of the superintendent of schools, 304 James St.

Through My Window

LOOKING TO THE SOUTH

If windows could talk, I'm sure my south one would be calling me out and demanding to know just what had to be done around here to get some atetntion.

Lately it has done a wonderful job of affording us interesting looking and I must admit that a little acknowledgement is long over-due.

Although spring usually makes her first appearance along the the creek bank, this year she made her debut to the south.

Those sudden mid-summer temperatures started a riot of growing and everything seemed to pop at once.

We just couldn't get over how fast it was happening nor how lovely it all was.

Our south-looking window window picture was a study in greens — amazing how many shades and tones one color can have.

Most of the trees are maples and, of course, their brand-new leaves are always a soft, fragile yellowish-green.

The yards soaked up the warm rains and immediately turned so bright and clean looking. The barberry clump leafed out in just one weekend and is now a mass of rich verdant greenness.

A trimmed hedge on Democratic St. was, as always, a little slow, but finally it caught up and now adds a solid wall of green to the picture.

In the background of our view stands Mrs. Mast's tall, powerfully dominant pine trees, whose dark black-green fills in and makes a perfect back-drop.

Spring-time green, and how very lovely.

☆

WHEN A BRIGHT, early morning sun backlights and filters through all this new growth, we look out on a mystic, almost fairy-like scene.

By afternoon, however, when naps are over and school is out, all the unreal magic of morning is gone and in its place, good wholesome fun.

Kids come from everywhere and there are games to be played, roller skates to learn about, bicycles and tricycles to be ridden, hobby horses to be tamed and red wagons to be pulled.

After a winter of playing inside they tell, just by their actions, how good it is to be outdoors again.

After all is said and done, it is not watching the day to day changes in spring's lacy greenness nor the children playing at their games which has given us the most pleasure.

Late many afternoons we have had the fun of watching a school session.

The pupil is proving most apt, at least from a distance it appears that he is responding well.

Who is he? A little cocker-spaniel—a pale blonde in color, his ears are long and silly, his waggly tail a mere stub and his feet big and floppy. He is just the way a cocker should be.

☆

OCCASIONALLY his master, but more frequently his mistress, has him out and up and down Democratic St. working hard at the obedience lessons, they go.

The little dog is so bouncy and full of good spirits that it's hard to obey the sit, stay, come and heel commands.

He does it, though, but sometimes he looks as if every little muscle were quivering with impatience to be done with such foolish business and let's hurry on with the fun job of running, playing and having a good time.

When the work period is finished and teacher and pupil head for home, the little cocker—at heel of course is the true personification of a job well done or a lesson well learned.

His head is high and as he prances along, his eyes must be sparkling with selfpride — after all, the lessons weren't too hard and my, it is such fun to please.

So it is that one way or another we have had much, much good looking to the south.

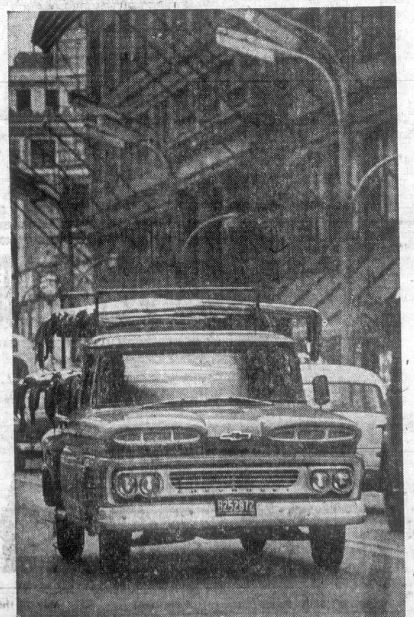
CHEVROLET



Chevy hums through Chicago traffic to the tune of 21 miles to the gallon!

Working for Bumper and Auto of Illinois, Inc., ten 1960 Chevrolet pickups battle Chicago traffic day after day. Each truck averages about 2,000 miles a month in this wearing stop-and-start delivery service. Mr. Harry Haller, General Manager of S & H Truck Leasing, who leases the trucks to the bumper firm, reports: "We provide full maintenance on the trucks—gas, oil and everything else—so it pays us to know just where we stand on costs. And our records show that the '60 Chevies are giving us as much as 21 miles per gallon . . . with an average of better than 17 miles per gallon. Mister, these are our kind of trucks!"

Truck owners have good things to say about all Chevy engines. And when they're not talking about Chevrolet performance and economy, they're telling you how great that new Torsion-Spring Ride is. How it soaks up road shock and vibration. Protects fragile loads. Lets you run at faster, safe speeds to get more work done in a day. Drive a torsion-spring Chevy soon. We'll rest our case on that one ride.

Hats Off To Michigan!

Michigan Week — May 15-21 — with its emphasis on all of the things for which this great state of ours is famous, is a good time to consider the vital importance of the motor truck . . . Here is a servant of the people which does indeed serve everyone: the farmer, the business man, the retailer, the housewife, the vacationer, the boys or girl at school.

Everything you eat, wear, or use travels all or part of the way to you by truck. Yes, trucks are as much a part of Michigan as its vast productive capacity, its beautiful scenery, its great educational facilities, its fine people.

9th Grade Class Sends Box of Toys to Malaya Youths

Ninth grade class of the Methodist Church School put their parcel to Malaya into the hands of local postmaster Jack Metcalf on a recent Tuesday.

Proper forms were completed and it was on its way to Penang and Evelyn Gislason, teaching in the Methodist School there.

Miss Gislason is a former Albion College student who visited Tecumseh Methodist several times before her departure for the orient last September.

"It makes you sick at heart in this beautiful part of the world to see children picking in garbage and refuse dumps for things to play with," she wrote in a recent letter.

So the members of the ninth grade class decided to bring some used toys and buy some new ones for Evelyn to distribute.

Yo-yos, tops, dolls and balls were prominent in the collection. Books, crayons, cars and other toys were included.

"It took a while for the group to come up with the cost of postage," said Mrs. James D. Nixon, teacher of the class.

'What Bible Says about Folks Living on Other Planets'

The Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid entertained members of the Ladies Aid from Saline and Adrian last week.

Pastor K. F. Koeplin gave a talk on "What the Bible says about people on the other planets" to the 100 women present.

Those representing Caravan 48 of Tecumseh at the national convention for Girl Pioneers in Owosso on May 21 will be:

Mrs. Gaza Kish, Mrs. Frank Humble, Mrs. Fred Ward, Mrs. James Nichols, Mrs. Ken Hinkleman and Mrs. Wynn Matteson.

Achievement night has been set for May 23 with a potluck supper in the church at 6 p.m. This is for the awards for the Girl and Boy Pioneers.

Bible quiz games were played and the meeting closed with the "Lord's Prayer."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Humble, Mrs. Wayne Kaiser and Mrs. Ruth Frost.

'Showboat' Theme for Cub Pack 4 Will Be Finale

"Showboat" is to be the theme for Pack 4 Cub Scout meeting Tuesday, May 24 at the Union Hall.

Every Cub will have a part in the program and it is hoped that all parents will come out to see and hear their sons perform.

This will be the last pack meeting until September.

An interesting program has been planned and any boy of Cub age, 8 to 11, is invited to attend and may join if they wish.

The Cubs will go to a Tiger baseball game at Detroit in June. The pack picnic will be held July 23 at the park behind Patterson School at 3 p.m.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

An Independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Exceptional Track Team

Spring sports in high school often get little attention. Poor weather condition and afternoon meet and game times keep crowds to a minimum.

They're a poor cousin to King Football.

This is a major reason why sports fans have paid scant attention to Tecumseh's exceptional track team this spring.

Undefeated at this writing, the THS cindermen have already in their collective hip pocket the state regional championship, won Saturday.

At a result of their performances in the regional, no less than six Indians qualified for the state meet this weekend.

The team first faces other squads of the Huron League in an all-circuit meet Thursday in Ypsilanti.

However, since Tecumseh has sprinted past league rivals in individual sessions, there's a good chance the THS team can come out in front for Huron laurels.

But for now, congratulations are in order for the big regionals win to coach Don Brazee and his thinclads.

Special praise also to Bob Koffron, Dale Tuckey, Jon Aho, Tom Simmons Roger Mead and Fred Betzoldt, all of whom performed well enough to be placed in competition with the best Class B trackmen from all over Michigan.

It Has Made a Difference

This marks the start of the third year for Tecumseh's Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber has been rolling along pretty well, but we're not kidding ourselves by saying everything has been just perfect.

There have been ups and downs, some members have dropped, some new ones added.

One big item during the past year is that an industrial division has been established.

Right now is a crucial period—it's time to ante up dues for the coming year. The membership committee will soon be busy in a campaign to sign up all present members and maybe add a few more.

Going into the drive, 87 were paid-up in good standing, 11 were delinquent with their dues. There are six honorary members.

In the retail division, 22 are participating, but there probably should be twice that many.

The retail group has been one of the most active within the Chamber. It has regularly staged sales promotions in town, was a driving force in getting action on off-street parking improvements.

Nearly 40 retail outlets at one time or another have taken part in this division and the greater the number always meant better results in city-wide sales events.

Merchants should remember that being active members of the retail division is a vital ingredient in success — for themselves and community business in general.

The Chamber has made a difference to Tecumseh since it got underway in 1958. It can make an even greater impact in months to come if members will assume more vigorous attitudes.

Memo: To Daily Newspapers

Every once in a while the newspaper profession hears the cry that out-of-proportion publicity has caused a situation to be greatly exaggerated.

Folks in the business usually reply, "We don't make the news, we just report it."

Most of the time, this is true.

However, on occasions over-zealous writers will pump up situations a little too much. In the attempt to be experts and pundits, they carry things too far.

That's the way we reacted to the W. Virginia primary's religious questions as reported by big city dailies and news magazines.

Jack Kennedy did a nice job of squaring off with the problem by bringing it up himself. Kennedy talked about separation of church and state (he favored it), what would he do if the pope tried to advise him (disregard the comments).

Some papers went so far, before the voting, to report that "Humphreys, a Congregationalist, was opposing Kennedy, a Catholic." How insane can you get?

Yes, we're afraid the public press did its best to blow 'way out of propotion a situation that is just one segment of a political campaign — not the entire issue.

We're inclined to think that the voters of this nation, in the main, will not solely vote for or against a man because he is a Protestant or because he is a Catholic.

Our advise to the big city reporters and columnists is for them to take another look at the over-all picture before the big campaign between Democrat and Republican takes up later this summer.

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Be sure to fly your flag Monday.

What happens when a group of men hold a reunion 20 years after graduating from high school?

Many accounts of such affairs have been written. They never particularly struck me as deeply emotional experiences.

Then it happened to me.

The gathering was in Detroit, at the old school, last Thursday evening.

It was exhilerating, striding into the room filled with former classmates, many of whom hadn't seen one another since that June evening in 1940 when we received our diplomas together.

Some looked no different from that night two decades ago—trim, youthful and with all their hair.

A few were well padded, showing they had developed great talent with knife and fork over the years. There were some awfully high foreheads, too (your writer included).

It was impossible to recognize several and luckily everyone wore name tags.

Our class at University of Detroit High School included about 105 fellows. Forty-five were there. Most of the others are now located across the nation. Five sleep forever in such faraway places as Iwo Jima, London and the bide waters of the Pacific.

Secretly, I was braced to hear some pretty fantastic success stories, but there was nary a one. As each talked about what he was doing there was a minimum of details, where he worked and with whom. The children (one of our lads has eight, another seven) got their share of the conversation, but mostly the "good old days" crowded our conversation.

Several of our fellows became doctors, including our all-state football tackle.

About five or six are lawyers and an equal number are in the automobile field. One is a priest.

Several represent firms which do business with places in Tecumseh and these fellows have been literally passing right by my front door every week or two. There'll surely be some sub-reunions now.

A most interesting surprise to me was our "old" biology teacher and baseball coach.

That old is in quotes because I found out for the first time last week that he was just 22 when he started teaching, us, is now 44 and looks about 25.

He keeps in trim by officiating Big 10 football games each fall and looked better than anyone in the class.

There were many grins during the evening as one after another incident, from the years 1936 and through '40, was mentioned.

The goal line stand against Cooley was dramatically portrayed, down by down.

Returning home that evening, a strange mood gradually enveloped me. It persisted most of the next day—a combination of joy and sadness. Guess that's what they call nostalgia.

For the first time, I found out what it's like to grow old.

On Monday I was chatting with Neville Hart about the feeling and he grinned, "Wait until you go to your 30th reunion. I did last summer and it took me a week to get over it."

'In Flanders Field the Poppies Blow!

"In Flanders Fields the poppies blow" — and so the flower that precipitated one war became the symbol of another and, with Memorial Day, of all those who have died in war.

The poppy was first associated with war in 1840 — in the form of opium. World Book Encylopedia explains that the fireworks started when the Chinese clamped down on Great Britain's smuggling of opium to China.

Britain took the opium issue as an excuse for declaring war. But when the Opium War ended in 1842, the issue was left unsettled while Britain concentrated on exacting trading privileges—and economic power—from the Chinese.

Three-quarters of a century later, the poppy became a symbol of World War I.

In 1918, when a YMCA staff worker named Moina Michael read the poem about Flanders Field, a U.S. military cemetery in Europe, she conceived the idea of wearing a poppy in memory of those soldiers who had died in World War I.

Miss Michael persuaded the American Legion to adopt the poppy as its Memorial Flower, and the national convention approved the resolution in 1920.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars adopted the poppy—and conducter the first nationwide poppy sale for the benefit of war veterans—in 1922.

On Poppy Day volunteers sell the artificial flowers in order to provide medical and educational services for disabled and needy veterans of both World Wars and the Korean War.

Legion, Auxiliary Will Sell Poppies

JC Seeking Signatures for Con-Con

Tecumseh Jaycees will conduct a house-to-house solicitation Monday, June 13 for Con-Con petition signatures.

Their proposal has been endorsed by the governor and by the Republican State Central Committee, both of whom have urged the Legislature to place this or a similar proposal on the ballot. This would eliminate the necessity for a petition campaign

The proposal to hold a Constitutional Convention will be submitted to the voters at the November, 1960 general election if the necessary 231, 219 signatures are secured on the petitions, or if placed on the ballot by the two-thirds vote of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

As a constitutional amendment, the proposal requires for approval only a simple majority voting on the question.

If the amendment is approved at the November, 1960 election, the question of calling a Constitutional Convention will be submitted to the voters at the April, 1961 election.

☆

THIS EFFORT by the local Jaycee chapter and others throughout the state is in conjunction with the League of Women Voters.

In addition to wanting a Con-Con, the groups also seek several changes in the machinery of putting a Constitutional Convention into force.

Until now, a majority of people voting in a general election had to OK the Con-Con proposal before it passed. The Jaycees and League want that changed to "a majority voting on the question."

In the matter of selecting delegates, they want one for each senator and one for each representative, not the present three from each senatorial district.

If a Con-Con is approved in November, the two organizations want a special election not more than 120 days after the proposal has been approved to name the delegates.

Residents Say 'Yes' to Session

In preliminary tabulations made of the FACT questionnaire, more than 50% of those reported indicated citizens would like a town-hall meeting to discuss various proposals.

Questionnaires were brought to each household in the city by Boy Scouts and picked up by Hospital Auxiliary members.

Citizens indicated preferences in the way of public facilities for Tecumseh, to be financed by money from the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

Mentioned on the questionnaire were a civic center, teen club, library, recreation facilities, park facilities, artificial ice skating rink.

Citizens were also asked to add any other idea they might have.

Completed tabulations will be turned over by FACT to the Foundation board of trustees early next month.

Con-Con Is Not Needed, Group Says

There is definite opposition to revising the Michigan Constitution.

The Michigan Farm Bureau has already gone on record against a Con-Con.

"The most intelligent way for Michigan's citizens to carry out any change which they feel should be made in the content of our Constitution is through considering each proposal on its merits," Stanley M. Powell, legislative counsel for the Farm Bureau said.

He pointed out that during the past 50 years, 112 proposals have been submitted of which 66 have been adopted and 56 rejected.

"This demonstrates," Mr. Powell went on, "That Michigan citizens not only could, but do, change their Constitution from time to time as they see fit."

Tipton PTA Beautifies School Area

Grounds at the Tipton school have taken on new beauty since last week.

Ninety-seven trees and shrubs have been planted to enhance the lawns and playgrounds.

Volunteer workers of the PTA, under the leadership of Mrs. Morris Cornell and Fred Freeman of Tipton, planted early Saturday and Sunday mornings.

A northern spruce, to be used as a permanent Christmas tree, is located near the front of the school.

Other shrubs planted include flowering crabapple, beauty bush, flowering quince, corkscrew willow and barberry.

Maples and sweet gum trees on the outside lawns will mature into pleasant shade trees in the years to come.

Jim Hewitt Named For Gathering at Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO — Forty junior high school science teachers from Michigan to California have been named to attend a summer institute at Western Michigan University, co-sponsored by the National Science Institute.

One of those accepted is James S. Hewitt, 7028 Wenonah St., a teacher at Tecumseh Junior High School.

Dean George G. Mallinson of the School of Graduates Studies will direct the institute, which is designed to bring them up to date in biology, give them extensive information in earth and physical sciences, and to help them in the best means of integrating the various sciences to develop a coherent program in general science.

The group will be at Western for eight weeks for their intensive study under the direction of WMU faculty members.

A stipend of $600 is allowed each student, along with dependency and travel allowances, with tuition and fees being waived.

Commencement By Ticket Only

Admission to the June 9 commencement program at Tecumseh High School will be by tickets only.

Each of the 129 graduates — a record number—will be given 10 tickets for relatives and friends.

The ticket plan was made necessary to insure comfort to those most directly related to the program, explains principal Neville Hart.

If you wish to attend and have not been given a ticket, please call Mr. Hart. There is no charge

Valuations Increased $4 Million

By JIM LINCOLN

A decision by the State Board of Equalization Tuesday boosted Tecumseh School District equalized evaluations by 13.6% or slightly over $4 million.

The increase, Supt. James McDowell reports, will change the additional millage needed from three to probably not more than two.

A special meeting of the school board will be held next week to determine the exact amount of money still needed and the millage amount to be placed on the July ballot.

Tuesday's increase in state equalization, plus about $600,000 in new city assessments, means approximately $36,000 to the Tecumseh schools.

School officials originally figured on dropping about $45,000 from the 1959-60 budget. They will now lose only about $9,000.

Most of the money needed for the 1960-61 term is for salaries for new teachers. The school board has figured about $39,000 is needed to employ the additional instructors.

The new state equalized evaluation for the Tecumseh school district is $33,973,690, compared to $34,802,954, the total before the state dropped it late last year.

The drop was to $29,908,347.

Memorial Day Parade Will Start at 9:15

Two units of National Guardsmen will be included in the Memorial Day parade this year.

One comes from Adrian and the other from Ypsilanti.

Carson House, marshall of the day, announced the tentative line of march for Monday will be :

Color guard and parade marshall.
Tecumseh High School band.
VFW firing squad.
Speakers car.
Mayor and city manager's cars.
Two city council cars.
Ypsilanti National Guard.
Civil Air cadets.
Spanish American War Veterans car.
VFW Auxiliary.
Army Reserve.
Adrian National Guard.
American Legion.
American Legion Auxiliary.
Abi-Evans Chapter DAR car.
Gray Ladies car.
Junior High Band.
Explorer Post.
Boy Scouts.
Girl Scouts.
Brownie Scouts.
School children.
Flower trucks.
Mounted delegation.
Bicycles and civilian cars.

The parade will form at 9:45 a.m. on N. Ottawa St.

Anyone not listed, who will be participating, is asked to contact Mr. House as soon as possible.

Sees U. S. by Boat

A really unusual and exciting way to see these United States is by boat, says Bob Moore.

This retired Tecumseh lumberman isn't just theorizing, he's really doing it.

Since 1956, Bob has traveled thousands of miles on every major river and stream east of the Mississippi.

His present 16-footer, the "Misisipi" has negotiated more than 7,500 miles.

Bob's latest trip, made with Bert Ousterhout was his best, Bob feels. It was 700 miles over the Tennessee River, which is primarily a series of nine lakes, connected by locks.

The pair started at Knoxville, Tenn. and boated to Pandusch, Ky.

Arrangements to have the Moore automobile and boat trailer driven between these cities were made by the Knoxville Tourist Bureau.

Excellent cooperation by the Bureau helped start the trip in fine fashion, Bob reports and contributed greatly to its success.

Bob speaks of the trip as if he were operating the Tennessee Chamber of Commerce.

"It's the most scenic, finest water, great fishing and accomodations along the way are excellent," he exclaims of the trip down the Tennessee River.

The junket took Bob and Bert through the Smokies and they passed by Civil War battlefields.

They fished all of one day, but it was difficult getting "natives" to show them where the really big ones were. The local folks were too busy dragging for mussels, the clams which bring in $200 a ton from button manufacturers.

POWER FOR the Moore boat is provided by a 60-horsepower outboard, which gets between 33 and 35 miles to the gallon. The boat carries 96 gallons of fuel in four tanks.

Bob got interested in boating after moving with Mrs. Moore to their lovely home on the Red Mill Pond.

His initial jaunt was by small boat down the Raisin River.

Bob's plans for the future call for several trips, including one west in the Missouri River to the State of Washington.

He also has his eyes on several Canada waterways.

Before starting a river junket, Bob carefully studies Army Corps of Engineer maps. Navigating is a tricky business and every twist and turn must be known—not to mention danger areas where underwater obstacles lurk unseen.

After dark running is "out"—that's the time to tie up bed down until dawn, states Bob Running at night is an almost impossible job because of confusion from lights along the shore.

Along the street there comes
A blare of bugles, a ruffle of drums,
A flash of color beneath the sky;
Hats off! The flag is passing by!

More than one Tecumseh resident will be seen to rub a tear from his eye as the Stars and Stripes lead the parade on Memorial Day.

Men from this community have died for it; women have sacrificed things dear to them to keep it floating over a free people.

Certainly this year more American flags will be in evidence as the city observes May 30.

Proposed Merger Will Not Affect Meadowridge

The Dairyland Cooperative Creamery Co. of Carson City announced its Board of Directors had approved a proposed merger with Michigan Milk Producers' Association.

Dairyland provides products under the Valley Lea label for Meadowridge Dairy of Tecumseh.

The proposed merger will have no affect on the local operation, states Ken Blumerick, owner of Meadowridge.

Paul Todd, President of Dairyland, said the merger would be recommended to stockholders and members at a special meeting scheduled for June 13. It would be effective July 1.

Dairyland is the second largest milk packaging cooperative in the state, with 340 dairy farmer members. It distributes packaged milk on a wholesale basis through 54 distributors in Central and Northern Michigan. It has no direct retail business.

"The processing and sales program of Dairyland has grown so rapidly that it could no longer be continued with limited financial resources," Todd said. "We needed the financial strength of a larger cooperative."

"The Dairyland Board of Directors felt that Michigan Milk Producers' Association, with its outstanding record of achievement and service to dairy farmers, was a (natural) organization to approach with a proposal to merge," Todd added.

WHAT'S COOKING?

Grapefruit Pie

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Mrs. Lavern J. Russell, 12839 Milwaukee Rd., is featured in the cooking column this week with her recipe for grapefruit pie — yes, that's right, grapefruit pie.

For lagging appetites at this time of year this delicacy has just the right amount of tartness to make it interesting.

Mrs. Russell was most generous and baked two for The Herald office employees.

One of our editors mistakenly called the first one an apple pie, so she gave him a second chance.

The pie, a favorite of her husband, first came to Mrs. Russell's notice 12 or 15 years ago at an Extension Club in Florida.

The Russells went to Florida the first time in 1928 when they forded a stream to get there.

Since that time they have spent seven winters there, two in Texas and one in Arizona and California.

They have traveled through 37 states and parts of Canada and Mexico.

When they are not traveling, Mrs. Russell enjoys gardening and a multitude of scrapbooks. She says that she is a perpetual "clipper."

For 30 years the Russells have been members of the Eastern Star. They are also members of the Farm Bureau and of the former DesPelder Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Russell is also a member of the DAR.

TEEN NEWS

Stanley Kramer's production of Nevil Shute's novel On the Beach, was on the whole a tasteful and moving treatment of the likely end of total nuclear war. There were few flaws in the film, mostly minor ones.

The acting was generally good with Gregory Peck marring the high level of dramatic projection. As Towers, the U.S. Navy commander, he was singularly wooden and expressionless for a man in his traits. It was not entirely believable that his family had been killed in the United States for he showed little grief, or for that matter, little emotion of any kind.

Fred Astaire; unlike his usual dapper self, did not seem about ready to break into a fast time step. He turned in an extremely competent and sensitive performance as Julian, the scientist.

Tony Perkins and Donna Anderson gave a warmly moving interpretation of the young married couple who would never see their baby daughter grow up.

Ava Gardner played the part of the village alcoholic in a believable and sincere way. She was not Ava Gardner, but Moira, and that is the test of a good acting job.

One of the best scenes in the movie was the one showing the submarine's loud speaker talking to the sailor who jumped ship in San Francisco's radioactive harbor. This beautifully expressed the emotions of every person involved in the tragedy.

This movie truly expresses the tragedy of our time where humanity knows what it is heading for and yet is unable to stop its flight into disaster. Perhaps, if everyone in the world could see this film it might help in some small way.

Individual classes are having May crownings in their rooms.

Mary Kruger was chosen to crown in the sixth grade, Tuesday.

Ruth Ann Warner and Thomas Rhorer had crowning honors in the third grade.

Elizabeth Schneider will place a crown on a statue of the Blessed Mother's head Friday.

The third grade had a raffle, auctioning a stuffed animal for the benefit of the Bishop's Relief Fund.

Joseph Bagby walked away with the prize. It seems as though it was Joseph's lucky day, for, he won the secondary prizes also.

√

A class trip was enjoyed by the seventh grade Saturday.

The choice for the trip was to Farmington to visit their sixth grade teacher, Sister Mary Michel O.P. now a biology instructor there.

They left St. Elizabeths at 12:15 Saturday afternoon; arriving at their destination. Our Lady of Sorrows at 2 p.m.

Sister Michel gave them a tour through the school and her biology lab.

A family of white mice was an enjoyable topic in Sister's lab.

After their tour through buildings and grounds, Sister Michel appeared with a treat for the 13 exhausted pupils. Being so excited over the ordeal one person got the hic-cups, but faithful classmates came to the rescue with several sure-cure remedies.

By 3:30 the group was boarding the bus for home.

Mistakedly they took an incorrect road. Result: getting lost. Finally at 6:30 they reached Tecumseh with a day full of joyous remembered events.

Those who went to Farmington wish to extend their appreciation to Mrs. John Neidermier and Mrs. Richard Refner, who accompanied them, and to Max Crosby who drove the bus.

√

The eighth grade girls toured St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian Wednesday, while the eighth grade boys went to Boysville in Macon.

√

Eighth grade graduation from St. Elizabeth's school will be June 5. Their retreat will be June 3.

Visiting Mayor Has Nothing But Praise for Our Community

As part of its celebration of annual Michigan Week, Tecumseh showed visiting mayor John Hewitt of Hastings a merry time last Thursday.

Tuesday was climaxed by the banquet at the Tecumseh Country Club, attended by approximately 130 citizens.

Just three days previously, Tecumseh mayor Harold Easton and city official from here exchanged positions in a like manner at Hastings.

Mayor Hewitt found nothing but praise for Tecumseh. He spent much of the afternoon touring the residental and industrial areas.

Mrs. Hewitt made the Kitchen Tour, which she enjoyed greatly.

At the dinner, Dr. Daniel McHargue of the University of Michigan political science department spoke of the history of Michigan, the dire need for revision of the constitution which he stated is outmoded", and lauded the Junior Chamber of Commerce's efforts toward this end.

Professor McHargue compared Michigan to other states, claiming it lags markedly in the freedom allowed major elected officials by appointing many minor positions."

"We burden our top executives and legislature by these outmoded regulations", he concluded, strongly suggesting a review of all of them in a new constitution.

In addition to Mayor and Mrs. Hewitt, other visitors in the mayor's party were Russ Hankins, president of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce; Warren Williams, Chairman of the Michigan Week Committee; and Jack Langthan, secretary of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce.

The local Kiwanis Club was the host club for the affair, with members from Exchange, Rotary and Junior Chamber as well as the senior Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce present.

Visiting president Don Wolf of Addison introduced Donald Murphy, Secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, who presided over the program.

Mayor Harold Easton welcomed Mayor Hewitt and his group to the city. The visiting mayor earlier in the day had received a "key" to Tecumseh at the city hall. The evening ended with the presentation of a silver tray to Mayor Hewitt from Mr. Murphy, as well as the presentation of one of Tecumseh's Jiffy Coolers to each of the others from the visiting city.

Income Hits $13,000 in First Year

Jim Hady, who will defend his world junior heavyweight championship against Paul DeGalles at the Adrian Fairgrounds the evening of Memorial Day, gave up a career of a professionel bowler to concentrate on wrestling.

Pin fans still insist Hady could have been one of the best in the country if he had elected to devote full time to bowling. As a teenager, he carried a 200-plus average. He has posted three 300 games and is a former Detroit doubles champion.

Hady has no regrets. For pro wrestling has something in more quantity than bowling — money.

"In the early fifties, even the best bowlers made only $7,000 to $8,000 a year," said Hady. "Things have improved a lot since then, but they still don't make the kind of money a wrestler can make if he wants to work at it.

"In my first year as a wrestler, when I still had a lot to learn, I made $13,000."

The first bout is at 8:30.

Explorer Car Wash Saturday

Explorer Post 87 will hold a car wash Saturday as a means to earn money for a canoe trip this summer.

Post members will wash cars at the Scout Cabin beginning at 10 a.m. for $1.50.

Interiors will be cleaned free of charge.

Anyone wishing to have their automobile picked up for washing may call Warren Filter, 244-R.

Explorers will march in the Memorial Day parade and an active summer program, including parties, is being planned.

This past week the group have been working on a clean-up project at the VFW Post home. The group is sponsored by the Hall-Slater Post.

MOVING DAY DELAYED—Original schedule for the move into Tecumseh's new General Telephone Co. office was June 1. However, the new furniture didn't arrive on time and the change-over date has been delayed. Latest word, according to manager Dale Clark, is that the furniture will be here at the end of June. The first weekend after it arrives will probably signal the switch. The building is complete and when it goes into operation will offer direct dialing for local and most long-distance calls.

Opening Day Is June 10

The Tecumseh swimming pool will open for the season Friday, June 10.

Hours will be 2 to 5 p.m. and 6:15 to 9 p.m.

Swimming lessons will be held in two sessions of four weeks each, beginning June 20.

The second session starts July 18.

Children should be enrolled in one or the other, but not both sessions.

Classes will be 30 minutes in length and will meet five days a week.

Enrollment will be held at the swimming pool from 9 to noon on the morning of June 13 and 14.

Children must be at least seven years old or have completed the first grade, to be enrolled.

Classes will be offered in beginners, junior intermediate, intermediate, swimmers, junior and senior life saving.

A class for adults will be set up later in the summer.

Acoustics Are Better at THS

Acoustics for public speaking in the Tecumseh High School gymnasium have been improved, states principal Neville Hart.

A sound engineer recommended that two of the speakers be moved from one end of the gym to the center.

The work was done by local electrician George Derby and in tests, the results were superior.

Coach Dunc Leetka's up-and-down baseball nine ran into Ypsi Lincoln's Dave Sparrow who twirled a no-hitter last Thursday for a 3-0 victory.

The Indians' sole runner got on in the fourth inning when the catcher interferred with batter Walt Girbach.

Sparrow whiffed 11 hitters in the seven-inning tilt and four times struck out two batters each inning.

Authority is one of the most common elements of our day. Everyone comes under some kind of authority. We see evidence of authority all around us. But, if asked to explain it, the average person would have difficulty explaining what is authority for his or her life.

Every life needs authority, both corporately and individually and without it we would flounder and wander aimlessly about. A very important question that needs to be answered from time to time, is 'What is Authoritative for My Life?'

This Sunday's sermon at the Presbyterian Church is entitled "A Question of Authority."

+ St. Peter's Has Holy Communion

Thursday, May 26, is Ascension Day at St. Peter's Church with Holy Communion at 5:45 p.m. followed by a family pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m.

In the service next Sunday morning, officers of the two Methodist Youth Fellowships will be installed.

Senior MYF officers were elected in April and will serve for the year following June 1. Intermediate MYF officers were elected last Sunday night and will serve for six months.

On June 5, Methodists in Tecumseh will be participating in a special offering for the down payment on additional church property.

Track Squad Adds League Crown

Tecumseh's domination of the Huron League continued last week when Coach Don Bratzee's track team ran off with the league meet and trophy.

The Indians earned the trophy by combining an undefeated dual meet record with the league victory.

Depth again proved a winning factor as the Indians grabbed only three firsts, of which two were ties.

Bob Koffron pushed the shot 45'5" to win the field event. Denny Bryan ran a 55.6 quarter mile to tie with Dundee's Willie Hudson, and Dale Tuckey tied for first in the pole vault at 11'3".

Koffron took a second in the 120-yard high hurdles and Tom Walters a fourth.

The medlay relay team of Fred Betzoldt, Koffron, Jon Aho and Tom Simmons was edged out of first by three-tenths of a second.

The same team took a third in the sprint relay.

Roger Mead finished third in the 180-yard low hurdles, fourth in the 100, and third in the pole vault.

Danny Green finished in a three-way tie for fourth place in the pole vault, and Terry Hendricks and Bryan tied for fourth in the high jump.

Craig Winters scored with a fifth place in the mile and Walters hit 19'4" in the broad jump for a fifth place.

The Indians squeaked by Airport to win the league meet by only three-tenths of a point, 41 1/5 to 40 3/5. Milan's tally was 33, Ypsi Lincoln 32, Blissfield 26 1/5, Dundee 17, Grosse Ile 16, and Flat Rock 2.

Tecumseh also boasts of championship teams in football and a tie in basketball with Blissfield.

Sportswear Needs Special Care

By ROYAL WELCH

Sports clothes are in vogue all seasons of the year—summer it's one thing; winter it's another — and spring and fall have their own special styles.

Besides, don't we wear our sports clothes for fun — ? And don't we usually give them hard wear?

Well, here's good advice on how to save on sportswear:

1. Buy only things that are serviceable. Read the labels. Ask questions. If in doubt, ask us. We'll be glad to tell you what can "take it" and what can't.

2. Always clean sportswear before you put it away for the season. Don't take chances. Age (old stains seldom come out completely), moths, heat and what have you may completely ruin it while it's put away.

3. If it can be sized — have it done regularly to reduce the chance of damage in use. Sizing repels stains, retards soiling and lessens wrinkling.

These three things will save and save for you.

And whether it's sportswear or anything else which needs cleaning, we promise you excellent service if you BRING IT TO Welch Cleaners.

Hare announced that both public school and community libraries have been supplied with copies of this easy-to-read edition of the Constitution.

MARDA GENE DUNCAN'S

Thru My Window

FLICK, FLICK, FLICKER

We have always enjoyed flickers, but this year — Wow. Each spring, when all the birds blossom forth in their bright colorful courtin' clothes, we know we are in for quite a show.

The beloved cardinals are usually the star performers with blue jays and wrens close behind. This year however, a pair of flickers are stealing the limelight.

At first we just saw the handsome mustachioed male. After watching him several days we decided that he was scouting inspecting. In other words, he was giving the neighborhood a thorough going-over.

The yards, creek-banks, trees, he even made several tours of the bird-feeders.

We hoped everything was proving satisfactory, but when late one afternoon we suddenly realized he had not been seen all day, our spirits fell. What if the area had been found wanting, what a lonely summer it would be with no flickers.

☆

OUR FEARS proved groundless, because not long after he disappeared, once again we thrilled to that loud raucous rattle which so plainly announced Flick, Flick, Flicker.

And wait a minute—there was no longer one voice, but very clearly we heard two. I was in my usual position in front of the west facing window and just how obliging can two birds be?

After hearing their call I, of course, immediately started looking—right into a small maple on the creek bank they flew. Well, into the tree is not quite accurate.

They flew to the trunk. He clung to one side, she the other. He was about six inches higher than his lovely bride and for perhaps five minutes they held that position.

Soft bubbling love-talk gargled in their throats and they took turns peeking around the small tree trunk and looking at each other. Suddenly the spell was broken and away they flew.

☆

ACTUALLY TO see flickers in flight is to see them at their best. Quite large birds, their wings are proportionately big and in performance provide effortless graceful movements.

The underside of their wings and possibly a bit of the birds' sides and tails are a surprising yellow.

When the sun strikes this, it turns a bright gold—beautiful, beautiful. Another unmistakable flight identification is a large white area on the birds' back right at the base of the tail.

Other than the yellow and the white, both male and female are brown and tan with black markings, bars, stripes and most noticeably a crescent on the breast.

Atop and at the back of their heads sits a brilliant crimson spot, very stylish red hat.

About the only markings the male and female do not share are the black facial mustaches—quite appropriately he has them but she does not.

BUT BACK to our pair. They are noisy about announcing their presence and seldom fail to call attention to themselves as they come into our window pictures.

It is fun to watch them, they are so devoted. He never lets her get too far away and she makes this easy by not being coy and playing hard to get. Just a nice solid couple easily settling into the routine of married life.

Flickers are of course among the biggest of our wood-peckers and are also the ground members of the family. One of the staples in their diets is ants and so much of their time is spent searching the lawns for these crawling creatures.

One disquieting habit is their love of drumming or rapping. Usually a dead limb suffices but last year one poor misguided soul found our TV antenna irresistable.

When he went to work it sounded as if an air-hammer were up there—most startling, especially when the urge to hammer overtook him early in the morning.

Nothing like that has happened this year so far and needless to say, although we are overjoyed to have the flickers back, we do hope they confine their noise making efforts to rattling out Flick, Flick, Flicker.

Vacation Mail Tips from Jack

Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf has these bits of special advice for those who want their vacations to be as pleasant as possible.

1. Don't let a stuffed mail box advertise your absence. Ask a neighbor to take the mail from your box or make written request to your postmaster to hold your mail.
2. File a forwarding order at the local post office if you want to receive mail while you're away.
3. Give your full and complete vacation address to people who may write you.
4. Use enough postage.
5. Don't send cash in letters. Use postal orders to transmit money, and register letters containing other valuable items.
6. Prepare packages carefully, and address them on one side only.
7. Buy books of stamps for convenience.

Grange Recalls Its Deceased With Service

A memorial service will be conducted by Mrs. E. J. Aebersold Thursday evening, May 26, at the Tecumseh Grange meeting.

Carmen Hendershot
Irvin Boltz
Russell Hall
Eva Van Vleet
Clay Croll

The Rev. Alvin Brazee will be the speaker.

The lunch committee is Mr. and Mrs. James Tonneberger, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Halley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Escott. Members are to bring sandwiches or dessert.

Man Is Merely Steward of Soil, Group Emphasizes

This is Soil Stewardship Week, a combined observance planned by the national church leaders and the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

The observance stresses that man is merely the steward of the soil while he uses it and that he must pass it on in as good or better condition than he found it.

A new colored film, 'The Earth is the Lord's" is being used by schools, 4-H clubs, churches, and Granges. This film is available free of charge to any interested group.

Inserts and brochures emphasizing Soil Stewardship will be used in church services during this week. Ralph W. Comfort, a layman of the Tecumseh Friends Church, has contributed to the promotion of this program.

As good stewards of the soil 450 farmer cooperators of the Lenawee Soil Conservation district have included the following conservation practices in their basic farm plans; contour farming, crop rotation, cover crops and green manures, strip cropping, crop residue utilization, pasture planting.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

An Independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Great Interest in Race

Great interest is being shown in the coming school board election. There is also some confusion.

First of all, there are four places on the board of education to be filled (two of them are brand new and will increase it from a five-member to seven-member group.)

Two persons will be chosen for four-year terms.

Two persons will be selected for three-year terms.

In filing petitions, candidates must state which race they're entering.

Actually, this makes it two separate elections. Thus, someone running for three years could garner a large number of votes and be beaten in his race, yet have most ballots cast for him than the winners in the four-year race.

Each candidate must declare his intentions before having his petition signed. This keeps eligible voters from signing too many. According to law, a voter is allowed to sign only that number of places on the board to be filled, two-three-year and two four-year petitions.

Filing deadline is June 11. Voting will take place on July 11.

Response Was Overwhelming

Response to the FACT committee questionnaire was overwhelming.

Distributed Saturday by Boy Scouts to every home in Tecumseh, the questionnaires were picked up Monday evening by 90 members of the Hospital Auxiliary.

Nearly half were completed when the Auxiliary arrived and most of the rest were filled in on the spot.

"Cooperation was excellent", reports Mrs. Joe Galazzi, who was in charge of this phase of FACT'S task to determine what citizens in Tecumseh want in the way of public improvements.

Now the tedious job of tabulating the answers faces FACT. Complete results are expected sometime next month.

Aid for the Average Voter

Why not a town-hall meeting with candidates for the board of education taking the spotlight, asks a reader?

Sounds like a wonderful idea.

The success of the recent public gathering featuring candidates for city council and other community officials prompted the suggestion.

As mentioned in the editorial above, there is considerable concern over the coming election. Having each candidate publicly state his or her position on the future of local education, then answer questions, would be of great aid to the average voter when it comes time to ballot in July.

Irish Hills GS Council Organized

Organization of the new three-county Irish Hills Girl Scout Council was completed last week in Jackson with election of key volunteer administrators.

Mrs. Harry Bond of Jackson was elected Council president.

Other officers:

Vice-presidents—Mrs. Thomas Cook of Jackson, Mrs. Don Fireoved of Hillsdale and Mrs. Robert G. Anderson of Tecumseh.

Secretary—Mrs. Bert Holcomb of North Adams.

Treasurer—Mrs. Irwin Gourlay of Jackson.

Among board members elected were Joseph Fortunato of Tecumseh, Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Garfield Smith of Clinton and Mrs. Frank Ames of Hudson.

A membership nominating committee was elected, and delegates and alternates to the national Girl Scout council meeting in St. Louis, Missouri, next November.

Mrs. Edward Rogers who explained the public relations function of the council told the cost of each of the services and announced a total budget of $42,479.50 for the first year's operation.

Picnic Date for Women Is Changed

A change in date of the picnic was made at the meeting of the Women's Association Wednesday evening at Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian Church.

It will be held June 22, one week later than originally scheduled, at the home of the president, Mrs. Wilbur Boyce.

Circle 2 were hostesses for the evening. Mrs. Boyce presided when it was voted to send two delegates to attend the Synodical meeting held at Alma on June 14 and 15.

It was announced that on June 5 a reception for the seniors of the church will be given following the morning worship service.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Joseph Galazzi who was also in charge of the program entitled "Our Town—Our Youth — Our Church."

Mrs. Hugh Hanna gave a talk on the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and the work being done by it.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Lott and committee with Mrs. Al Helzerman and Mrs. Hugh Hanna pouring.

Francoise De Beaufort (1616-1669) said:
"THE FUTURE OF SOCIETY IS IN THE HANDS OF THE MOTHERS"

Few people realize how much mothers influence our nation's future. Our instincts are changing to more tolerance, and greater belief in the "Golden Rule." These qualities we learn from our mothers.

But, mothers are also greatly responsible for the improved health of our nation. They follow their physician's advice, so they can have stronger, healthier children. With loving care, mothers make certain babies get the important vitamins and special baby diet their Doctors suggest. We can help by supplying these aids to baby's better health.

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 16, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

VOL. 109 — ONE HUNDRED TENTH YEAR — NUMBER 33 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1960 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Neil DePuy said he enjoyed last week's column on that sentimental 20th high school reunion.

He's going to his 50th in a couple of weeks at Bellevue High School.

Neil says that nine of the 13 members of his group have indicated they'll be on hand.

That's quite a record.

From Greece comes word that The Herald is being used to help students learn about life in the United States.

Donald R. Oseid, who is married to the former Martha Jane Hanna of Tecumseh, now teaches at Anatolia College in Thessaloniki Greece on a Fullbright grant.

He took some copies of our weekly to class for his students to "give them experience in reading modern American English and at the same time provide them with a glimpse of the normal life in an average-size American community," wrote Mrs. Oseid to her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hanna.

"The things they noticed were interesting to Don and gives us some insight into their opinions and habits.

"They were very much surprised that a man running a service station could be elected mayor and seeing Mr. Easton's picture where he is in working clothes gave them some idea of how democracy works.

"Here in Greece people try to hide the fact that they must labor for a living by wearing suits.

"The lowest-paid attendant in a gas station would travel to and from work in a suit, shirt and tie (shabby perhaps, but none-the-less a suit.)

"The Greek students also had food for thought over the sizeable budget the council would have to spend.

"There were many things that comes to their attention, such as the phrase 'passed away' instead of 'dying'. This way they learn just the kind of phrases in use in America today that they do not get from reading their 30-year-old literature books."

☆

Roger Linger, former Tecumseh Country Club golf champ, wonders if shooting a hole-in-one is the thing to do.

Roger, swinging his trusty seven iron, clipped a tee shot into the No. 6 hole last Thursday.

Meanwhile, back at the clubhouse, everyone in the area was queued up for the traditional treats of orange pop and Coke —on the "lucky" Mr. Linger, of course.

The next day, Roger was out hustling his baked good routes early, muttering, "This is going to take quite a few loaves of Holsum bread to pay for that ace."

☆

Duncan Lectka, who'll again serve as summer recreation director, announces another activity, this for boys seven through nine years of age.

It's peewee baseball, regulation is all ways except that batters will strike the ball as it sits upon a tee on home plate.

Dunc hopes to operate the league at several neighborhood diamonds.

THE REV. JULIAN GRESHAM DELIVERS ADDRESS

3,000 See Parade

"Because people have died in the past does not mean that freedom is complete and secure," the Rev. Julian Gresham told those attending the Memorial Day service at Brookside Cemetery.

"On the contrary we have no guarantee of freedom, in fact there is a growing number who feel we are losing the meaning of freedom."

The speaker pointed out that "we find ourselves in the embarassing position of having our own citizens fighting for freedom in a free nation, whose Constitution guarantees freedom.

"Today we criticize the Negroes for sitdown strikes, but what are they doing? Merely what Americans have always done—fight for freedom.

In the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Gresham said,

"If I had died for freedom, I would want my memorial to be the everlasting support by those who lived of that cause for which I died.

"Instead of words on one day, I would want deeds every day. Instead of eulogies for the past, I would want plans for the future.

The traditional Memorial festivities started under threatening skies at 10:15 with the annual parade. Carson House served as marshall.

Music was provided by both the Tecumseh High and Junior High bands.

The line of march included the American Legion and VFW posts and Auxiliaries, Boy and Girl Scouts, National Guard units, a float by the Girl Scouts, children on decorated bicycles and adults and young people riding horses.

Nearly 3,000 spectators crowded the sidewalks over the entire line of march, despite the poor weather.

About 1,000 took part in the Cemetery ceremony, which was highlighted by the placing of wreaths on monuments which honor war dead and into Evans Creek for navymen who gave their lives.

Mayor Harold Easton served as master of ceremonies for the program. The Rev. Laszlo Gero gave the invocation.

WREATH TO HONOR NAVY DEAD — Mrs. Harold Warren tosses a wreath onto the waters of Evans Creek in memory of the navy dead during Memorial Day services. Similar floral tributes, honoring other branches of the armed services, were placed on Brookside Cemetery monuments by Mrs. Robert Starkey, Mrs. Richard Johnson and Mrs. Joseph Kellogg, all members of the VFW Auxiliary.

Flower, Hobby Show Is Saturday Afternoon

Visitore at the June Fantasy Flower and Hobby Show Saturday will enjoy tea from silver service during the afternoon. The annual event will be in the United Products Workers Union Hall from 2 until 8.

Local artists who will exhibit their work are:

Mrs. Joe Galazzi
Mrs. Fred Randall
Mrs. William Schorer
Mrs. Curtis B. Brown
Mrs. Donald Cobb
Richard Boyd
Karen Lytle
Mrs. Robert Laidlaw
Mrs. Kenneth Ross
Bertha Vallelunga
Bill Hanna
Ernie Koldar
Mrs. Robert Sage

There will also be a display of photographs taken by members of the current amateur class.

Anyone who would care to exhibit their hobby may still make arrangements with Mrs. Robert Murray.

New Bridge To Cost $39,000

City council accepted plans for a new bridge over Evans Creek on N. Maumee St. and approved a new sanitary sewer under the bridge at a special meeting Tuesday night.

The bridge, estimated by engineers, will cost $39,000.

City manager Ed Nelson was requested to advertise for bids.

Macon Cemetery Gets New Flag

The Hall-Slater Post of the VFW presented a new 50-star flag to the Macon cemetery board Memorial Day.

Wade Scudder, president, of the board received the flag, which was presented by commander Harley Slick and past commander Gaza Kish.

The VFW firing squad fired a salute after the old flag was lowered and as the new one was raised.

Trophy Won by Half Point

Tecumseh High School has won the Huron League All-Sports trophy.

Capturing the football and track championships and being tied for the basketball crown accounted for most of the Indians' credits.

However, it was a four-way tie for fourth place in the baseball race that boosted Tecumseh a scant one-half point over runner-up Milan for the trophy.

Poppy Day Nets $514

Mrs. Lavern Seizert, chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Day sales, reported a total of $514.37 collected.

The cash will aid disabled veterans and their families.

She said that junior members of the organization were a great help this year as in the past.

Sales by VFW Bring in $364

Mr. and Mrs. George Downard reports $364. in proceeds from the VFW and Auxiliary Poppy sales.

Of this, $168.34 is paid directly to the veterans who make the poppies and the rest of the amount is used to assist needy veterans and their families.

City Gets $19,318 from Road Fund

A total of $19,318.17 is the amount Tecumseh will receive as its share of the first quarter of the collections of the motor vehicle highway fund.

Lenawee county will receive $371,174.32 of the colections.

HE RAN PARADE—Carsen House, who was this year's marshall, getting the line of march squared away for Memorial Day parade. Several more pictures appear in this issue, others will run next week.

2 Town Meetings Salted for June

Two town-hall meetings have been slated for June.

1. A gathering to discuss findings of the FACT committee on June 14.

2. A session with all candidates running for the Tecumseh board of education, June 30.

Both are being held in the Products Workers Union Hall at 8 p.m. under sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club.

Merle Hoag is serving as chairman for the FACT meeting. Present that evening will be members of FACT and trustees of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

They'll report on the recent questionnaire brought to every Tecumseh home regarding the various proposals for new community facilities.

Kiwanis acted upon a suggestion of FACT chairman Dr. Bob Laidlaw, based on an overwhelming response among citizens for such a meeting.

The meet-school-board-candidates meeting is being chairmaned by Dr. Richard Coak.

Kiwanis will attempt to have a state expert on equalized evaluation at this get-together, in addition to all board hopefuls and other school officials.

Candidates will be asked to state their views and answer questions from the audience.

DAVID AND DIANE COAK HAD SURREY WITH FRINGE ON TOP AT PARADE

Their Record: 76½ Years

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Mrs. Wyman Service of 121 W. Brown St. and Mrs. Purnell Osburn of 205 N. Maiden Lane are putting aside books and pencils after a total of 76½ years of teaching.

Mrs. Service has taught 37 years, 31 of them in the Tecumseh public school system. Her subjects were English, French and Latin.

Mrs. Osburn has taught 25½ years in rural schools in Lenawee and Monroe Counties; in Madison, Raisin, Ridgeway, Macon, Tecumseh, Milan, and Clinton before coming to the Tecumseh city system 14 years ago.

In all, she has taught 39½ years in the elementary grades.

☆

OUTSTANDING among the many interests in the teaching career of Mrs. Service is her work on the yearbooks, Senior Echoes.

She started teaching here in 1918 at the same time Mrs. Orville Laidlaw did and the two roomed together.

Mrs. Service helped students to compile the first annual published in 1919 and was advisor for four years until her marriage when she and her husband moved to Ypsilanti.

She returned to teach here in 1934 and was proof reader of the annual for Mrs. Laidlaw when the Class of 1937 again published the book after several years of discontinuation during the depression.

When her good friend, Mrs. Laidlaw, retired, 12 years ago, Mrs. Service shouldered the job by herself and has continued to advise the seniors each year in improving and increasing the size of the yearbook.

She tells about one year when the class of seniors ended with a $400 deficit, which was made up by parents of Perry Hayden and Bob Moore and the school board.

MRS. SERVICE also mentioned how the cost of the book has increased. The first one was published for about $1,000 and the present annual cost is about $3,000.

Mrs. Service has been chosen in past years to direct many a junior and senior play. She and Mrs. Laidlaw together directed a comedy, "A Couple of Millions", produced by the class of 1920, which will be celebrating its 40th reunion this year at the home of Ralph Hodges. Mrs. Paul Keyser had a supporting roll in the cast.

This was the first play to be given in the "new" high school, now the Junior High.

Mrs. Service is a native of the Upper Peninsula, born at Marquette. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

One son, David, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Service in April of 1929. He passed away in January of 1936 of tuberculosis meningitis when a first grade student.

Mrs. Service was feted recently at a banquet arranged in her honor by her fellow teachers at the high school.

☆

MRS. OSBURN was born on a farm near Ridgeway and graduated from Ridgeway and Tecumseh Schools, the Lenawee County Normal and the Ypsilanti Normal College.

Mrs. Osburn taught for a time before her marriage, took time out to raise her family of five and then resumed teaching.

All of her children are Tecumseh High School graduates and are living with their families here in the Tecumseh area.

Charles lives on Park St.; Pat, Mrs. Carl Kennel lives on Chippewa; Jean, Mrs. Lowell Edwards lives on N. Maiden Lane; "Ole" Jack Osburn lives on Matthews Highway and Jim lives on Seminole.

A grand total of 15 young people call Mrs. Osburn "grandma" except when they are her students in school.

She has always had a 4-H Club meeting in her school room; in 1917 through '19 she assisted the Minetoska Camp Fire Girls with their projects.

She also managed the Opeka-sit Youth Club here in 1944.

Mrs. Osburn's present fifth grade students planned a surprise birthday party May 20 for her with the help of Mrs. Richard Dustin. It was held in the Patterson school. The children gave her a parakeet and served dainty refreshments.

The party had been planned since January and "nary" a little fifth grader breathed a word to the honored guest.

☆

BOTH RETIRING teachers were honored by members of the local MEA at the last regular meeting.

A decorated cake with their names inscribed in icing was served with other refreshments.

Each retiree was presented with an orchid corsage and a generous check.

When asked about future plans, both ladies said that they just want to "catch up" on the many things that they have not been able to do in the past.

FLOWERS FOR THE TEACHERS — The VFW Auxiliary provided corsages and boutonnieres to each of the 109 instructors in the Tecumseh School District last week. Mrs. James Felton presented them. Here she honors the district's two retiring teachers, Mrs. Purnell Osburn and Mrs. Wyman Service. (Please see the adjoining story about the two retirees)

Macon Chicks

Youngsters in the first and second grades of Macon School have been having fun in the past few weeks raising a family of chicks. It all started when Edward Gottschalk (above left) and brother Billy brought a bantam hen to class. They also fetched some eggs, as did Corky Hunt (below left) and Danny Morgret. Banty did an expert job of hatching the eggs and the chicks were soon introducing themselves to the boys and girls.

Janice Ann Brady Marries Donald Moore on Saturday

Candlelight and pink and white carnations in the altar vases formed the setting for the wedding of Janice Ann Brady and Donald Ray Moore Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brady of Russell Rd. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moore, Jr. of Macon.

The Rev. Blair Bashore performed the ceremony before 150 guests, who had been seated by Hamilton D. and Richard Moore, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Kenton Hunt presented a program of nuptial music on the organ.

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white lace over nylon net fashioned with a ballerina length scalloped hemline and bodice featuring long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and her pearl necklace was the gift of the groom.

Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and orange blossoms centered with an orchid.

Nancy Lamson was the maid-of-honor, wearing a gown of pink nylon over net. She wore a pearl necklace and carried white and aqua carnations.

Robert Brady, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall featuring a pink and white theme. A four-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was cut by Nancy Lamson.

Donna Lamson registered the guests, Diane Gove and Mrs. Dean Moore assisted with the gifts.

Those pouring beverages were Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gerald Carey and Mrs. Edward Furlong of Ypsilanti.

Luncheon following the rehearsal was served at the home of Bert Brudder, grandfather of the groom.

The bride attended Tecumseh schools and the groom, Britton-Macon schools.

Following a short wedding trip to Northern Michigan they will make their home in Brady apartments on Occidental Road.

'Day of Days' Approaches

That "day of days" is only a matter of hours away for 131 young men and women who make up Tecumseh High School's Class of 1960. It's the largest in the school's history, surpassing last spring's 107. Of the 131 grads, two will not be present for commencement, but they'll be receiving their diplomas through the mail. Mrs. Judy Trusdale Wilson is now living in Ohio and J. C. Heflin is in the Marine Corps. Both completed the necessary work for degrees.

Festivities for the class begin with baccalaureate Sunday evening. Annual Class Night will be Wednesday, June 8 with graduation the following night. Each of these programs is being held in the high school and will start at 8 p.m. Because of the large number of relatives and immediate friends of seniors to be seated for commencement, admittance will be by ticket only this year.

Students shown on this page are the "Top 20" scholastically of the class, listed in the order in which they finished. Remainder of the grads appear on the next two pages. Photos by Dixon

Methodists Hope to Collect $1,400

A "down payment offering" will be taken at the Methodist Church Sunday.

The Rev. James D. Nixon explains, "In our recent annual meeting the church voted to purchase property and home at 207 W. Chicago Blvd., and this special offering has been announced to raise the amount needed as a down-payment."

This week a letter goes to all who attend the Methodist Church concerning the special offering.

A registration of attendance will be taken in the service so that canvassers can call on those unable to attend.

"We believe this purchase is crucial to the future of our church, said Carlos W. Jones, chairman of the Official Board. "We will need it for future expansion, and we need the seven rooms for class room space beginning in September."

Mr. Nixon explained that payments on the house will be part of the regular improvement budget of the church.

"The goal of Sunday's offering is $1,400 and we can do it with the help of all our members and friends," said Mr. Jones.

The pastor's sermon will be on the theme, "Pentecost's Pointed Question!"

Other features of the Pentecost Sunday service will be reception of members, and presentation of Bibles to graduating seniors.

The Bibles, provided by the Temple Dependable Class, will go to 18 Methodists who graduate from high school during the following week.

Vacation Church School at St. Peter's will be July 11-15 from 1 to 3 in the afternoon.

+ Book of Jonah Is Sermon Topic for Presbyterians

When you mention Jonah, the next immediate thought is of a fish, for this is what most people remember about the story. Jonah and the fish go to together like ham and eggs.

It's too bad we have this limited view, for the Book of Jonah is one of the great parable books of the Bible.

This Sunday's sermon at the Presbyterian Church, entitled "Divine Direction" will be concerned with Jonah's efforts to flee from God and what he learned in the process.

Horse-and-Buggy Empire Makes Post

W. Stewart Woodfill, his Grand Hotel and his horse-and-buggy empire on Mackinac Island have merged into a fable that threatens to displace Paul Bunyan in Michigan folklore.

The story is related in the current (June 4) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Norma Lee Browning's article, "Mithigan's Island Innkeeper," says that during the short summer season this little empire attracts 350,000 tourists.

How To Apply Deodorants

By ROYAL WELCH

The true deodorant doesn't stop the flow of perspiration It deodorizes it. But the nonperspirant acts on an astringent principle: it closes the pores and prevents the flow of perspiration And non-perspirants are usually acid.

Best way to avoid underarm stains caused by deodorants is to apply them the previous night. Failing that, here's the next best thing:

1. Apply deodorants at least 15 or 20 minutes before dressing.
2. Use them sparingly, wipe off excess. Allow to dry.
3. Clean garments, worn when you have used a deodorant, often and as soon as possible after wearing.

That way the damaging chemicals can be removed before they've had time to do the full job of damage.

These three simple precautions will lengthen the life of your clothing and either prevent or retard the appearance of unsightly stains.

And, as a general recommendation, you'll be safer if you use creme type deodorants exclusively. They're usually non-acid and they don't affect the tensile strength of fabric quite as severely as may the acid (fluid) "deodorants", even though they may affect dyes.

In the event, whatever the cleaning problem, it's always a good idea to BRING IT TO Welch Cleaners.

KALAMAZOO — Junior righthander Ray Larned of Tecumseh is having a more difficult time getting started this year as a mainstay of the Western Michigan University pitching staff. Larned, last year, beat Iowa and Michigan State, but this season has been in less than twenty-five innings as the Broncos are in a re-building year and suffering through their worst season in history. The current record is 4-10. Last year, the Broncos finished fourth in the NCAA world series tourney after eliminating Minnesota, Notre Dame and Detroit in the District 4 tourney. And the year before that, Western Michigan was third in the nation.

Through My Window

OFTEN EXASPERATING, BUT ALWAYS FUN

Photography is a natural outgrowth of a bird watching hobby. When a lovely new bird is seen or an old familiar friend is spotted under especially attractive conditions, invariably the exclamation that follows all the ohing and ahing is, "Oh if only I had a picture.'

Getting that picture however, is not always as easy as it seems. From experience, it involves many, many hours of patient waiting, much anxious waiting and a great deal of worrying and waiting.

There are, of course, many more failures than will ever be admitted, but the thrill of getting that pert little Tufted Titmouse just so" or capturing the irridescent sheen of a mourning dove's head makes it all worth while.

Most of the time our camera is trained on one of our two feeders. By carefully setting an especially attractive banquet board, we try to lure the birds to the feeder in camera range.

Most of the time our bird and squirrel models are cooperative and, with the reward of an extra tasty sunflower seed or of an especially nice bit of suet, they do about as we want; occasionally however, one becomes obstinate and oh, the trouble he can cause.

It is most frustrating to be all set up for a bird in one place only to have him stubbornly patronize the other feeder exclusively.

☆

THE LITTLE red-breasted Nuthatch, who was with us two winters ago was most trying in this respect. He seemed to take great pleasure in thwarting our efforts to photograph him and no matter at which feeder our camera was aimed, he took particular care to dine at the other one.

In the several months he was here, we fooled him only a few times and have no more than four pictures and they aren't too good.

Fortunately most birds and squirrels are more cooperative than the red-breasted. The squirrels seem almost to enjoy having their pictures taken and have become quite hamish about their eating.

They assume one position, then another. They are all fun to watch and most make for good picture taking. The blue-jays are good subjects too. Their vivid coloring, so many shades of blue, and their haughty manner show off well. And so it goes — everything that visits our feeders has its own special charm, the challenge of photography is capturing it.

OF COURSE, even with the most cooperative birds, the ones who willingly come to a well-stocked feeder, there are problems and vexation. For instance, our favorite of all birds the cardinal, presents two problems.

First, those black face masks, which, especially on the brilliant males, makes them look so much like little red bandits, are most unphotogenic.

In a picture they tend to make the birds look cross and crabby with perpetual scowls. The second problem is catching them without having their mouths bulging with sunflower seeds.

Of course, we lure them into camera range with food but my, couldn't they rest a minute and just look around as other birds do?

☆

A DISCUSSION of the various birds whom we enjoy taking pictures of—what makes them good subjects or how they make us work—could go on and on, but space and time are limited.

I must however, take a brief minute to describe our camera and say again a most sincere 'thanks!" to the wonderful designer and builder and his two helpers.

An electrically operated remote control head fits over the camera and is activated by a switch, which is pinned to my bed or fastened on the wheel chair.

A slight upward pressure on the switch by my wrist and the picture is taking. A downward motion advances the film and readies the camera for another exposure. Our source of light is an electronic flash and it is so fast that seldom do the birds or squirrels even notice it.

Note the word seldom.

The first picture I took was of a squirrel and he, definitely did notice the light. The flash went off and he somersaulted backward off the feeder, took off across the yard at top speed and I'm not sure, but he may be running yet.

The worst part was that we did not have another squirrel back on our feeder for almost two weeks. We had begun to worry, but finally they came back and fortunately, have been with us ever since.

☆

ONE OF our big headaches with the camera is the birds who don't come to the feeder. A few of them we have managed to photograph, but alas most of them present formidable problems.

The kingfisher for instance, would be a wonderful study, but as yet we haven't quite figured out how to set the camera so to get him and still be close enough for me to operate.

We did have luck, several years ago, with the wrens who raised a family in the little house which hangs in a nearby maple tree. We merely took the camera outside, removed a screen, and ran the operating cords through the open window. It might have looked like an odd setup but we got our pictures.

☆

SO LIKE the title says, our camera is often exasperating, but it is always fun.

Probably our biggest thrill was getting pictures of the evening grosbeaks. If not the biggest, the latest disappointment was not getting pictures of the white crowned and white throated sparrows.

The greatest frustration — I hesitate to pick out any single instance, but high on the long list must certainly be the Baltimore oriole, who on his one and only trip to our feeder sat so that the head was out of camera range.

Our ambition is, of course, to make our next film the best ever — this is one of the joys of photography, one always works, hopes and strives for better pictures.

PHOTOS BY HERALD

THIS IS THE CAMERA — Marda Gene Duncan (right), veteran Herald columnist, writes this week about her trusty Argus camera, held by her mother, Mrs. Harry Duncan, 607 W. Logan St. Marda Gene has it placed on a tripod next to her picture window, with a telephoto lens pre-focused on a bird feeder about four feet away. The electronic flash provides illumination. Her color slides are exceptional.

Here's Way To Eliminate Pesky Spiders

Contrary to public opinion, spiders do not often bite.

However, they still are a nuisance to motel and resort owners, reports Ray L. James, extension entomologist at Michigan State University.

Spiders live in and around buildings, feeding on flies and other insects. Buildings with poor foundations, or with none, often hide many spiders, who prefer basements or crawl spaces that are damp.

Effective control can be had by calking or otherwise tightening the foundation so that spiders cannot get under buildings. This will keep them from getting into living quarters.

For spiders under buildings, use chlordane or pyrethrum. Treat all affected areas, especially the webs, by applying a course spray or dust.

If spiders are getting into living quarters, use chlordane. Apply around baseboards where spiders are likely to get into rooms, and treat webs if they are present.

289,585 Boats Are Registered

Warm weather, blue skies and the approach of the vacation season has accelerated the flow of motor boat registrations to the Michigan Department of State.

Applications have jumped from a few hundred to more than 2,000 a day and the number is increasing as June draws nearer.

Secretary of State James M. Hare estimates that about 200,000 of Michigan's half million watercraft owners have thus far failed to register their motor boats.

Under the new law, 289,585 watercraft have been registered.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

An independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Break for Our Oldsters

Talk of helping ease the financial crisis for folks over 65 living on fixed income is getting attention from national leaders.

The most impressive idea to date, in our opinion, comes from the mayor of Livonia.

It's so simple that probably many who have heard it are saying, "Why didn't I think of that."

William Brashear has suggested freeing people over 65 of paying school taxes.

He points out that most of these folks have spent their lives paying taxes to educate children and now should "get a break."

As might be expected, the mayor has received many letters from oldsters, who help show graphically how tough it is for them.

One man said he and his wife "live on $157.50 a month social security pension and paid $67.60 last year in school taxes. That is over $5 a month to the schools and we don't even have any grandchildren."

Another man reported, "I have paid taxes in Detroit for 50 years and think we should be relieved of some of the burdens we have carried so long."

One elder lady penned, "Every time school taxes go up we cringe."

We have no idea how much school income would drop if the over-65 bracket was exempt, but if there was ever a logical way to help our senior citizens, this would seem to be it.

TAR

Another Fine Parade

One of The Herald's columnists, Dorothy Grigg, predicted in her "You Told Us" offering last week that "more than one Tecumseh resident will be seen to rub a tear from his eye as the Stars and Stripes lead the parade on Memorial Day."

We're sure that's just the way it worked out.

It was a wonderful parade and a fine prelude to the stirring ceremony at Brookside Cemetery.

There's just something about the beat of marshal music and the sight of the marchers that bring a lump into the throats of spectators.

No one need be ashamed of feeling a tear course down his cheek.

It's great to be an American — and we're not being trite. We should never take this for granted. Such things as our Memorial Day festivities help remind us.

We honor the men and women who gave their lives in America's past conflicts and at the same time we also jog our own memories about the future.

World situations are in a general state of confusion. To keep our heads above water and not be lulled into the cesspool of radicalism, we must think positively and maintain a high standard of ideals.

Principals can't be compromised many times before the whole foundation is washed away.

TAR

HER MAJESTY — Kendra Ringman, a Tecumseh High School senior, was chosen queen of the recent Safety-Check and Paint-Up Week parade. The committee in charge presented Kendra with a bouquet of roses.

New Purdue Lab Named in Honor of R. W. Herrick

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—Nearly 200 leaders of the refrigeration and air conditioning industry will gather at Purdue University on Friday for the dedication of the Ray W. Herrick Laboratories.

This is the new center for research in refrigeration and climate control at Purdue.

The center, which is the culmination of new ideas in industry and agriculture, was made possible by the gifts of 20 different firms and individuals.

Among Michigan companies contributing to the new lab were Tecumseh Products, Revco of Deerfield and Addison Products.

Friday's program gets underway with guided tours through the Herrick Laboratories.

That afternoon Prof. Jack Chaddock, of the mechanical engineering staff, and Prof. Fred Andrews, will be the speakers to explain the research program.

Mr. Chaddock will have as his subject, "The Relation Between Heat and Mass Transfer in Air-Conditioning Processess," and Mr. Andrews' subject will be, "The Role of Climate Environment on Physiological Performance of Man and Animal."

There will be a dinner in the Faculty Lounges of the Purdue Memorial Union building with President Frederick L. Hovde of the University introducing the distinguished guests.

Walter Scholer, of Walter Scholer and Associates, Architectural firm which designed the building, will make formal presentation of the structure to the University with the acceptance by President Hovde.

"We are doing basic research in heat transfer, mass transfer, thermodynamics, and fluid mechanics, all directed toward solution of problems in refrigeration and air conditioning," said Professor William Fontaine, co-director of the laboratories.

"In addition, we are attempting to bring together through research the basic subject matter areas of mechanical engineering and environmental physiology for the purpose of enlarging the scope of climate control and to increase productivity in agriculture and industry.

"We hope and feel that we are providing a service to the industry by furnishing trained manpower, basic information, idea exchange, and the opportunity for pin point research aimed at specific problems.

"We have already graduated 15 graduate students in mechanical engineering, 11 with master's degrees and four with doctoral degrees.

"Currently there are 15 graduate students enrolled in this field four of whom are candidates for PhD degrees. It is impossible, of course, to estimate the good that comes from this source of trained manpower."

Two Attend

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Andrade of Centennial Rd. were in Albion last week end where they attended a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses held at the Armory.

They were among the overflow crowd of 1,668 who heard witness minister, Peter D'Mura, talk on, "Finding Peace in This Troubled World".

Homemakers Hold Dinner at Allen's

Mrs. Charles Allen was hostess to 22 members and four guests of the Harmony Homemakers Club Wednesday for a cooperative dinner followed by a business session.

Two former members, Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Mrs. Hazel Thompson, also attended.

The same officers were elected to serve for another year.

During the business session, conducted by Mrs. Eddie Kirkland, a card was signed by members to be sent to Mrs. William Wallace, who is a patient in a Morenci Nursing Home.

The next meeting will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. Kirkland June 22.

Summer Schedule

The summer schedule of services in the Congregational Christian Church begins Sunday when the church service will be held at 10 and the Sunday School at 10:45. This schedule will continue through June, July and August.

2 Win Honors at Cleary College

Two Tecumseh students are among the 17 students on the President's List for highest honors at Cleary College, Ypsilanti, it was announced by Dr. Owen J. Cleary, president.

Harold Rhora, ranked sixth on the list with a 3.75 average, and William Newell, 1000 Red Mill Drive, earned a 3.5 average.

VOL. 109 — ONE HUNDRED TENTH YEAR — NUMBER 34 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1960 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

A dear friend is moving from Tecumseh this week. Our family and a lot of others will miss her.

She has called our community "home" for the past six years.

This lovely lady is a nun, principal of St. Elizabeth's school.

Sister Anne Xavier, O. P. was assigned by the Mother Superior of the Dominican Order to administer and teach first grade in the local parochial school when it was opened in 1954.

Many residents of the community at that time had never seen a Catholic sister and they were probably astounded to watch Sister Anne and her fellow nuns stroll down Chicago Blvd. and local stores to do their marketing.

That habit (outfit) the sisters wear is a little foreboding until you become used to it. Then, like a military uniform or any other non-civilian garb, you accept it as second nature.

It didn't take long before the newcomers, in their flowing black and white dress, were a part of our city.

She knew that six years was the regular "tour of duty" for a principal and that in 1960 she'd complete her work in Tecumseh and be transferred to another school in another city.

Sister Anne has particularly loved the chore of working with the first graders. Of her 32 years in teaching, she has spent 29 with the "babies."

One of Sister's greatest joys is teaching children to read. She follows the phonetic system, which Dominicans use in all their schools.

Each student must first learn to pronounce every sound of every letter in the alphabet, also the common combinations (sh, ch, th, etc.), before picking up a reader.

This takes the first half-year of first grade.

With phonics, youngsters learn to break words into syllables, can soon pronounce the longest ones by "sounding them out."

The books come out after Christmas vacation and from that point reading usually comes quite easily.

A nun at Senia Heights in Adrian, where the Mother House (convent) is located, told me that our Sister Anne is regarded as "the best phonics teacher in the Dominican Order."

You might be interested to know that this order of nuns has 2,300 members, who are teaching at schools in 14 states and territories.

The "O.P." behind the Dominican's name stands for Order of Preachers.

Sister Anne's home is in Ypsilanti.

From the time she was a little girl she thought about offering her life to God.

While a freshman at St. Thomas High School in Ypsilanti, she attended a ceremony at Siena Heights when a friend of her family joined the Dominicans.

It was on that day she knew she had a vocation.

She entered the convent in Adrian as a junior in high school

After completing her training and taking her final vows, she was assigned to her first teaching post, St. Nicholas, in Chicago. That was 32 years ago and there has been a steady devotion to duty ever since.

There will be many more years to come, I'm sure, and a variety of new posts for Sister Anne, who like the career military man, never can regard one place as home for very long.

But she'll always be happy teaching her "darlings" — the work God wants her to do.

$60,000 Revenue Bond Starts Parking Project

By JIM LINCOLN

Plans to sell $60,000 in revenue bonds were approved Monday night by council for buying and improving an off-street parking lot in the northeast business block.

Solicitor James Beardsley was authorized to proceed with legal work and seek approval from the Michigan Finance Commission.

Chamber secretary Don Murphy told council that a committee headed by Bill Powell, real estate agent, had made verbal agreements with present property owners and expected to secure options within a few days.

City manager Ed Nelson said that shoppers and businessmen possibly could have a parking lot yet this year if legal processes and sale of bonds did not hold the city up.

Approval by the commission and sale of bonds are expected to take about 90 days. The revenue bonds will be retired through income from parking meters.

THE AMENDMENT to the dog ordinance, restricting dogs to owners property and eliminating the 1,000 feet from home "play area", was given its third reading and passed.

Karl Schneider, John R. Thompson and Tom Corkery remarked at the meeting that the amendment was too strict.

Others also have opposed the amendment, but many also have supported it.

☆

IN A REPORT, architect James Smith said the government will be asked to save as many trees as posisble, if and when it builds a postal building in Adams Park, and to use stone matching the city hall building.

In other action Council:

- Ordered removal of illegal signs in residental districts.
- Requested a report on beauty parlors in restricted zoning areas.
- Delayed acting on police car bids.

JCs Seek Signatures on Con-Con Proposal

Monday night marks the beginning of the drive in Tecumseh to get a constitutional convention for Michigan.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will go from house-to-house with petitions to help collect the quota of signatures necessary to have the question put on the ballot.

The amendment, which they are proposing, seeks the following changes:

1. Place the call to convention automatically on the ballot in the spring election of 1961.
2. Change the requirement for passage of a call to constitutional convention from majority in the election to a majority on the question.
3. Change the basis for selecting delegates to one delegate for each senator and representative instead of three from each senatorial district.
4. Speed up the election of delegates and consequently the whole process.
5. Call for the convention to meet in Lansing in October of 1961.

According to the Jaycees, there are many sound reasons why the state constitution needs revision.

It was written in 1908 when Michigan was primarily agricultural in nature. Now the population has quadrupled and the state is industrial.

The constitution was poorly constructed in the first place. It is a rigid document, not easily changed.

It includes much specific legislation in its body and its amendments. Thus it cannot change when the governmental needs change. This particular deficiency is most obvious in the state's financial troubles.

The Legislature could not find a constitutional tax and was able to only patch things up temporarily.

The Jaycees are not interested in obtaining any specific legislation, but only in improving the government of the state.

Some other changes they hope a convention would consider are:

1. Changes in the administrative structure which will define lines of authority and responsibility to enable this branch of government to function more efficiently and make it easier for the voters to judge performance and fix responsibility.
2. Improvement in the method of selecting judges to give the people qualified judges free from political pressure.
3. Changes which would permit the legislature power and ability to make decisions.

Troopers Help Skin Diver Who Loses Mouthpiece

Carl M. Anderson, commander of the state police post at Clinton, reports that a total of 454 arrests were made during the month of May.

A snake bite, cat bite and four dog bites were checked by officers.

Sgt. Anderson reminds the public that it is important that these bites be reported immediately.

Verbal warnings to motorists numbered 363. There were 150 complaints investigated.

Troopers assisted a young skin diver, John Dickerson, 19 of Toledo, Sunday when he lost his mouth piece under water at Wamplers Lake.

Dickerson was surfacing when he heard a boat coming toward him. He swerved to go down again losing his mouthpiece in about 10 to 12-feet of water.

He was unable to replace the mouth piece or unfasten his tank and kept taking water into his lungs.

He was helped to the surface and taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was released Monday to be confined to his home under physician's care and medication to prevent pneumonia.

A friend on the dock was unable to warn the approaching boat of the skin diver's presence under water.

McDowell Explains Cash Problem

By SUPT. JAMES McDOWELL

Despite the addition of many pieces of new property to the local tax roll and therefore an overall increase in real property, the cut last December of approximately $5 million by the State Tax Commission in personal property within the city of Tecumseh has left the Tecumseh Public Schools in bad shape financially.

This is still true even though the State Tax Commission recently added 13.6% to all real and personal property in Lenawee County.

If the state equalized evaluation for 1959-60 had not been reduced by $5 million before the 13.6% was added the Tecumseh School District would have shown an increase in evaluation of approximately $4¼ million, rather than a loss of approximately $1 million.

This loss handicaps the schoool district in meeting its need since it also decreases the amount of money for school taxes for operation, which may be levied within the 15-mill limitation.

SINCE THERE will be at least 240 additional pupils in the Tecumseh Public Schools next year, it will be necessary to add at least eight teachers as the classrooms are already overcrowded.

These eight persons have already been secured by the board at a total salary cost of $39,300.

Thus, with a loss of $7,750 in revenue due to decreased state equalized evaluations in our district, $39,300 for additional teachers, and $36,000 needed to extend the school year from 9½ months to 10 months, the total additional revenues needed will be about $83,050.

Approximately $69,600 of this is needed from local revenue, which could be realized by a 2-mill levy on property throughout the school district based on the new state equalized evaluations.

Faced with this deficit the board of education has decided to request the electors of the district to vote two additional mills for the operation of the schools for a five-year period.

This question will be placed on the ballot at the annual election on July 13, 1960.

Unit	1960	1959	Increase	Decrease
Tecumseh City	$23,405,956	$25,444,674	$	$2,038,718
Adrian Township	41,190	37,141	4,049
Clinton Township	339,278	308,661	30,617
Franklin Township	2,147,362	1,905,259	242,103
Macon Township	1,404,673	1,227,472	177,201
Raisin Township	3,697,913	3,321,672	376,241
Ridgeway Township	573,077	503,393	69,684
Tecumseh Township	2,364,241	2,054,682	309,559
	$33,973,690	$34,802,954	$1,209,454	$2,038,718

Overall decrease of $829,264 on district.

The above figures include the 13.6% increase by the Tax Commission.

To Conduct Tests Here

Members of the corporation have indicated employment between 100 and 200 if their experiments are successful, and an industrial plant will then be built across the street.

The building is expected to be completed by June 15 by Templeton Construction Co.

Tuesday is the birthday of our flag.

Rather than candles and cake, Tecumseh residents and merchants will honor Old Glory by displaying her colors on the streets and lawns of the city.

During 1776 and 1777, a number of flags with 13 stripes came into use and the need of a definite national emblem was realized.

On June 14, 1777, Congress passed an act stating "That the Flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Let's be the "City of Flags" Tuesday.

TO THE EDITOR

To The Editors:

Enclosed is the check for four dollars for our renewal of the Herald. My mother, over 90, looks forward to receiving the paper each week. Sometimes she remarks that she could find no news about anyone she knew.

But usually there are names that recall people she knew or at least knew of long ago. She wonders especially why there is no Ridgeway news anymore.

I especially enjoyed the Britton section, the feature news articles were well done and the pictures were excellent. Looking forward to enjoying your paper another year.

Sincerely,
Francis Higgins

Schools Go to 10 Months

By Supt. James McDowell

The Tecumseh Board of Education has increased the school year from nine and one half months to 10 months for 1960-61, following considerable study and upon recommendation by the Administration and teacher groups.

Tecumseh public schools during the last 10 years, both in the elementary and secondary levels, extended the school day in an effort to provide superior quality educational experiences for the children and yet also provide many additional services, which are described by parents.

The school day for elementary pupils is actually five hours and forty minutes, one of the largest school days in the state; the secondary day is six hours and nineteen minutes, which ranks Tecumseh among the longest in the state. However, even with such long school days, the board and administration feel that additional time is needed to meet the needs of the pupils.

TECUMSEH SCHOOLS need additional time to provide services and curriculums which make Tecumseh schools outstanding and known nationally for the superior quality of the curriculums.

In the elementary schools, a full program of physical education for boys as well as one suited to the girls in which showers are required has set the pattern for schools all over the United States. A full program in vocal as well as instrumental music has been of great value to our children and has been a focal point of interest to visitors from other schools.

The elementary libraries also rate high for Tecumseh schools lead the field in elementary library facilities as well as programs.

These activities, however, require time; only by extending the school year, since our day is already very long, may these as well as the three R's be taught more effectively.

THE SENIOR and junior high programs are also well developed and full to overflowing. In about two years the high school will reach 900 and become a Class A school.

Many large B, such as we, and Class A high schools are already on 10-month schedules because they are unable to meet the needs of the children in a shorter time.

The board feels that this is the time to make the change since modern times have made an excellent high school education essential for a purposeful and happy life for our children.

Since the Michigan Education Association has recommended the ten-month school and base salaries of $4,500 for degree personnel this increase in the school year with the corresponding increase in base salaries from $4,200 to $4,500 has placed Tecumseh schools in a position to again be able to attract outstanding young teachers to our staff.

THE BOARD has made every effort to secure a metropolitan group of teachers, representing many different areas of the United States and a large number of colleges, but has been handicapped in the past due to minimum salary schedules, being less than those recommended by the MEA

This condition has now been remedied and we have already been able to fulfill our needs for next year with young teachers from a wide range of colleges.

Nail Polish Precautions

By ROYAL WELCH

Nail polish is about the same thing as lacquer. And just as hard on clothes.

Whatever the garment — and particularly if it's made of rayon—leave the nail polish stain absolutely alone. DO NOT, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCE WHATSOEVER, ATTEMPT TO REMOVE IT WITH NAIL POLISH REMOVER. This not only spreads the stain and allows it to penetrate deeper into the fabric, but if the garment is rayon, or, perhaps one of the newer "synthetics", it may fuse the filaments of the materials into a hard mass.

WHEN THAT HAPPENS THE GARMENT IS RUINED.

To be honest with you, we cannot give you positive assurance that we can remove all nail polish stains all the time.

Let us examine your nail polish stains. If we find that we can take them out, presto! they're gone. And you have a garment good as new.

But if it can't be done, we'll tell you that, too. And maybe you can at least save the cost of cleaning a valueless article.

And try not to apply polish when you're in good clothes. You wouldn't lacquer or paint in your good clothes, would you?

Anyhow, for good cleaning of your clothes, always BRING THEM TO Welch Cleaners

+ Adult Education To Be Stressed in Sunday Sermon

Something of a paradox exists in the Christian Education program of the average church. It is a paradox because the average adult feels Christian Education is important to the extent that space, equipment, materials and leadership are provided on an ever increasing scale and considerable money is spent in order to insure the success of said program, but the average adult does not participate in the program himself. The adult world considers Christian Education important for children, but for children only.

What about adult Christian Education? Is it important? The church gives a definite 'yes' answer. This Sunday's sermon entitled 'What About Adult Days?' states why Christian Education is important for all ages.

+ Sisters To Speak at Friends Church

Wednesday at the regular Friends Church mid-week prayer service missionary sisters, Elizabeth and Kathryn Evans will speak at 7:30.

Elizabeth Evans is a specialist in Christian education having had conferences in Greece, Cyprus, Egypt and Vietnam.

Kathryn Evans is on furlough from Station HCJB in Quito, Ecuador.

Baptist Children Practice for The Program Sunday

All children of the beginners, kindergarten and primary departments of the First Baptist Church are asked by their teachers to meet in the Youth House Saturday, June 11, at 2 p.m.

Dress rehearsal for the Children's Day program to be presented Sunday, June 12, will be held.

The program will begin at 10 a.m., and the children are requested to report to their classrooms at 9:45 a.m. Sunday for their costumes.

Rev. Hawthorne Presents Prayer

Prayer books were presented to four graduating seniors at the family worship service Sunday morning at the St. Peter's Episcopal Church. They were Myron Bedore, Mary Colgrove, Jerry Irelan and Mary Seager.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne presented the books on behalf of the congregation.

The St. Peter's Parish picnic will be held Sunday beginning at noon.

Air Force Signing Men for 'Buddy Flight' Program

Air Force Recruiters will be enlisting men under a special "Buddy Flight" system during June and July, Sergeant Robert Cooper local Air Force Recruiter announced today.

This campaign means that two or more friends, who qualify, can travel together and take their basic military training in the same flight.

MARY SEAGER'S

With Tecumseh TEENS

Sunday the first step in leaving high school was taken by 129 graduating seniors. This step was the moving Baccalaureate service held in the high school gymnasium at eight p.m.

Marjorie VanValkenburg presided over the organ as the seniors solemnly marched in.

The Junior class was responsible for the decorations in the gymnasium. White block letters against a blue field spelled out the class motto of "Knowledge Is Power; Ambition Is Strength," in the class colors.

The Reverend Nixon took his theme from the scripture reading and gave an eloquent plea for individualism in life in order to serve God better in the sermon, "Molds for What Moment?"

Only three more ceremonies remain: Class Night, Commencement, and the Honors Assembly

Final semester exams were taken by all Tecumseh High School students Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Report cards will be given out Friday at the Honors Assembly.

☆

Class Night practice was held Wednesday at 3:10. Class Night itself took place Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. The Top Twenty of the class were responsible for presenting the program.

☆

Commencement is Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The parents of the seniors are sponsoring a class party after Commencement exercises at the Tecumseh Country Club.

A buffet supper will be served starting at 11 p.m. with a breakfast beginning at 4 p.m. A magician will be performing from 11:30 to 12 p.m.

The cost will be $1.50 per graduate. There wil be dancing and casual clothes are the thing; Bermudas, cottons, slacks, etc.

The Honors Assembly will be held Friday morning in the gymnasium at 9:30 a.m. All spring athletic wards and trophies will be presented at that time.

☆

The Teen Club is sponsoring Senior Night at the Teen Club after the Class Night program from 10 to 1 p.m. The seniors will be admitted free with free refreshments. Bermudas are allowed.

A record hop sponsored by the Teen Club is being held Saturday night in the A&P Parking lot.

Class officers for the coming year were elected in class meetings recently.

Next year's seniors chose Tom Barton for their president with Inez Boltz for V.P. The secretary is Linda Refner and Jane Hodges is the treasurer. Student council representatives are Jean Hohenstein, Ron Lemerand, Judy Mangrum, and Larry Titley, the alternate.

The eleventh grade elected Ron O'Neil as their leader and Tom Hicks will be the vice-president. Bonnie Bucheimer is the secretary and Nancy Beland is the treasurer. Chuck Osburn, Mary Alice Stutesman, Carl Will, and Roger Fox as the alternate are the student council representatives.

Dan Van Valkenburg is the president of the tenth grade with Jane VanValkenburg, his cousin, as the vice-president. Jack Dick is the secretary with Tim Sisson as the treasurer. Mike Cook, Mary Ann Mead, Bonnie Staup and David Blanden as the alternate are the student council representatives.

There are still a few 1960 Senior Echoes left. If anyone would like to buy one, he can get in touch with Mrs. Service or one of the editors.

Summer Recreation

By DUNCAN LECTKA
Tecumseh Recreation Director

The City Recreation program will be swinging into high gear with the completion of the school year.

The Cub League got the jump on everyone last week as it kicked off the baseball season with three closely played games.

Boys are urged to attend as all will be placed on teams regardless of ability.

3,500 MILES
of care-free, trouble-free
WATER TRAVEL
with FLYING SCOTT outboard motors

Tecumseh's Bob Moore is a real enthusiast for long-distance boating trips. Since starting this hobby, Mr. Moore has traveled more than 7,500 miles over inland waterways all across the eastern United States.

He has used Flying Scott outboard motors for the last 3,500 miles of these journeys. Mr. Moore says that his Scotts have performed perfectly, never giving a minute of trouble no matter how rough the going.

On his recent 700-mile junket down the Tennessee River, Mr. Moore used his new Flying Scott 60. It operated 30% more efficiently, he reports, than his 1959 model. The new Scott powered his 16-foot boat at an average speed of 25 miles-per-hour. One tank of gas—six gallons—gave him one hour and 20 minutes of travel.

You, too, can enjoy the reliability, performance and thrift of a Scott motor. They range in size from the 3.6 horsepower to the 60, are priced from $136.96 to $910.95. As little as 10% down.

A "sports car" tachometer is standard equipment with the Royal Scott 40 and the Flying Scott 60. It's optional with the 40 hp and 25 hp Scott. Only with a tachometer indicating correct throttle settings can you be sure you're using the right propeller, getting the most from your motor.

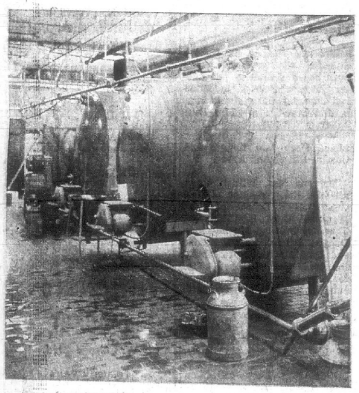
JUNE is DAIRY MONTH

Why do we advertise 'June is Dairy Month'? Because when June is busting out all over, as the song says, and our cows are giving milk like crazy, we have a super-abundance of dairy products — milk, butter, cream, buttermilk, ice cream, whipping cream, cottage cheese, processed cheese — that tastes so good and is so good for your health. So we just can't help shouting JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH, and hope you will buy from us or your nearby grocer's to provide a continuing market for our farmers in Lenawee county who are our suppliers for this richest of all food products.



THESE GIANT VATS, located in the milk processing center of Driggs Dairy Farms at Palmyra, are made of stainless steel, with all glass tubing, for continuous flow of milk direct from the milkers out in the dairy barns to the pasteurization and cooling process. From these vats to the bottling machines, Driggs milk is pure and untouched by human hands. It's delivered that way to the consumer.

DELIVERING MILK is Arthur (Red) Doerfler's job in Tecumseh. He's been 16 years on this route, lives in Riga, makes the run from Palmyra to the homes of 150 customers here every day. His door-to-door service supplements that of local stores where Driggs Dairy Farms products are sold, all packed in handy, disposable paper cartons. No bottle deposit, nothing to take back. It's always guaranteed fresh.

TANKERS like this one, glass-lined and insulated, protect Driggs milk in transport to Toledo bottling plants of Driggs Dairy Farms. They are operated under lease by Lyle Ames and Son.

why Mercury is the better low-price car!

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:

You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier. You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).

Mercury has at least two dozen extra values in all. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money in the bargain?

PRICES START $63 TO $66* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a "stripped" Mercury. This price comparison is based on a de luxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Mercury Montereys are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, other low-price cars such as the V-8 Furys and Impalas.

No wonder Mercury is so popular this year! Many low-price-car buyers have discovered they can get far more of everything they want with Mercury. Come on in and see for yourself!

HAPPY VACATION!

Vacation time already—wow. If the Duncans are to have even a slightly planned vacation——and especially when traveling with a wheel-chair a little planning is most necessary—but as I started to say, if this gets done I must start looking not outside at the cardinals, squirrels and even a pair of Baltimore orioles, but inside at maps and tour books. A few days of this and then its back to looking through windows. Instead of pictures in my room howeevr, they will be car windows!

See you in July.

Red Cross Is Seeking Funds

The Lenawee County Chapter American Red Cross will accept contributions of money for relief of victims of the earthquake and tidal waves in Chile.

All chapters are asked to serve as a channel for relief, following a request from the Chilean ambassador to Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross.

Current reports indicated that the dead and missing exceeded 450, over 1,000 injured and many thousands are homeless. All funds received will be sent to the Chilean Red Cross.

The local Chapter will make a contribution of $200 from the Children's Fund to be used to assist disaster victims in the Chilean area.

Cash contributions are urgently needed and should be addressed to Lenawee County Chapter, ARC, 204 N. Broad St., Adrian.

Mrs. Ethel Druillard and son, Howard, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller in Adrian. They returned home Monday evening.

Scholarships Help To Launch College Career

It has been noted that knowledge and skills acquired have served the young people as stepping stones to a future career.

The 4-H committee points out that scholarships offered as national awards also have helped to launch a college education.

This year eight $400 Sears-Roebuck Foundation scholarships will be given to the highest ranking boys and girls selected from among the 4-H Home Improvement state winner.

Each state winner will be a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next fall.

The trip is sponsored by the foundation, which is host to some 2,000 members, state 4-H leaders and other guests attending the congress.

Jaycees Planning Carnival

Tecumseh Jaycees are now making final arrangements for their 1960 Homecoming Carnival to be held again at Meyers Aircraft Co. from June 20 through 25.

The Carnival has a two-fold purpose. One, of course, is to offer the public summer time enjoyment and relaxation.

The other is to create a source of income for the Jaycees to carry on their many worthwhile civic activities.

The Jaycees are a non-profit organization with one basic goal in mind—to maintain, promote and better the Community in which they live.

Working capital must be obtained through such activities as the Homecoming Carnival.

It Costs Penny for Each Year at 'Guest Night'

"Guest Nite" was observed by the Ladies Aid of Grace Lutheran Church Wednesday evening when members each brought a guest to the potluck supper.

Birthday month was observed with members contributing one penny for each year of her age. A large cake was served by the committee.

Members voted to hold a barbecue at the Lake next month on meeting night.

The sunshine committee reported on Larry Schaffer, Mrs. Rhae Henkel and Mrs. Art Dinse

The meeting adjourned with the "The Lord's Prayer."

Clinic Director

Dr. John Bicknell joined the staff of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic as medical director on June 1.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

An independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Proposed School Tax

Once again, the school board faces a crisis.

It needs more operating money. An increased enrollment calls for eight more teachers.

The board really stewed a few months back when the State Tax Commission cut state equalized evaluations on property in Tecumseh by about 20%.

This created real concern among the boardmen, who concluded there must be a three-mill boost in taxes.

The situation was relieved a bit three weeks ago when the State Equalization Committee made a statewide upward adjustment which averaged 10.8%. Tecumseh's state equalized evaluations on property moved up 13.6%.

This helped, restoring most of that which was taken away last fall, but of course, was not enough.

The board must ask for more money and at this writing has approved two mills.

We go along with an increase for as much as needed, but don't want to see a millage issue defeated at the polls in July because the amount is too high.

While the evaluations of Tecumseh dipped 20%, then was brought up 13.6%, the rural folks received little relief. Instead, their state equalized evaluations were upped by nearly 13.6%.

Times are pretty good, but nickles and dimes are being counted carefully, none-the-less.

Whereas one mill or one and a-half mills might get an OK from the voters, maybe two mills would fail. We don't know, but considerable talk heard from various quarters is not favorable for adding two mills to the present tax load.

A special board meeting is being held in the high school cafeteria Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The financial situation will get a complete airing and interested citizens should attend.

This Will Affect You

Are you interested in Tecumseh?

If the answer is "yes", you should make every effort to attend the town hall meeting in Products Union Hall next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

To be discussed: findings of the FACT committee in its two-months of research into Tecumseh's needs for new public buildings.

FACT'S effort was capped with the recent questionnaire, which went into every household of Tecumseh.

Citizens were asked what of nine programs they favored, also to add any other ideas, not listed, which they thought should get priority.

Each was also questioned about wanting a town meeting and more than half said they did.

Tuesday's session will be general in nature, with FACT members and also trustees from the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation on hand to answer questions.

It will eventually be up to the trustees what program is undertaken and where the money is spent. FACT was formed to help them learn what is most needed and most wanted.

At present, the Foundation has approximately $80,000 in assets and expects to garner upwards of $50,000 each year from surplus donations made to the annual Community Chest drive.

This is important business for every resident of the area, because each one of us will eventually be affected by what the Foundation will be doing.

Your opinion can be heard at the gathering Tuesday.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Dr. R. B. Stewart, vice-president and treasurer of Purdue University, left, at the Purdue airport greeting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Layton of Tecumseh. Mr. Layton, president of the Tecumseh Products Co., was one of many dignitaries arriving on the campus for the formal dedication of the Ray W. Herrick Laboratories for Refrigeration and Climate Control.

160 Attend Dedication

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — More than 160 persons, including many leaders of the refrigeration and air conditioning industry, attended the formal dedication of the new million-dollar Herrick Laboratories for Refrigeration and Climate Control at Purdue University.

The new building was named in honor of Ray W. Herrick, chairman of the board, Tecumseh Products Co.

The laboratories will provide unexcelled facilities for basic research in air conditioning and refrigeration and directed toward studying the effect of environment upon man and animals.

In discussing "Man and His Environment" at the afternoon program, Prof. Fred Andres stated, "The true nature of environment is perhaps not known to any man. Civilization progressed most rapidly in the temperate climate zone.

"When man is free of the problem of supplying the food he needs he can turn to more important things.

"During the two billion years that water, ice, dust, or darkness clothed the earth, nature took things easy. Now, as we seek to explore the polar regions, the desert and jungle, to develop tropical resources, and venture into space, man can no longer afford to take it easy regarding the problems of environment."

He pointed out that about 250,000 species of plants and nearly 100,000 species of animals are known today, yet only a handful such as corn, wheat, oats, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry, have been adapted to environment.

Corn has been so highly developed it will grow in almost any part of the world, he said, and consequently livestock has spread to many new areas.

Professor Andrews said that animal productivity can be greatly stepped up by environmental control, and this is one of the problems which Purdue scientists hope to solve in the new Herrick Laboratories.

John Cavas, Kroger manager in Tecumseh, is treading Cloud Nine this week.

John has been chosen by his company to attend Michigan State University for one year to obtain his master's degree, with emphasis on food distribution courses. He's a graduate of Adrian College.

The firm takes care of everything, including a salary for John.

He was one of 10 young men from the entire Kroger Co. tabbed for the high honor.

Competition among Kroger men for the coveted appointments began two months ago and John was on pins and needles until a phone call Monday gave him the good word.

Along the way he spent a weekend in Cincinnati at company headquarters for detailed interviews with top executives.

John will be leaving Tecumseh in about a month. His successor as manager has not been announced as yet.

Hearing the father of U-2 pilot Francis Powers, as radio reporters interviewed him about plans to travel to Moscow and see his son, reminded me of a funny experience.

The elder Powers was most curt in his replies — probably scared to death that what he said might tighten the noose around his boy's neck.

And if you recall he wouldn't tell what was in his letter from Khrushchev. On the radio he really balked when one fellow asked what he'd do when he gets over there.

The occasion I recall happened while my wife and I published a weekly in a small Ohio town of 1,200 some four or five years ago.

A local GI, son of a man of the soil, became a code expert with the army.

He drew a one-year tour of duty in Moscow, working at the embassy coding and de-coding highly confidential messages going out and coming into the USSR.

It made a wonderful story for us and we ran quite a spread a few weeks before he left.

When the year was up and he returned home for a furlough, I immediately set up an interview.

The lad was quite tight-lipped, having gotten stern warnings not to reveal any classified information.

His dad was present as I questioned the boy and at almost every querry, the old man interrupted to say his boy couldn't answer that.

After about 10 minutes of frustration, I was about to give up, when, in desperation, I inquired, "Did you wear your uniform all the time."

"No," the soldier responded, "Only once, on the Fourth of July, when the ambassador had a party for all American personnel stationed in Moscow."

"Oh, by the way," I inched forward, "Who is our ambassador to Russia?"

With this, the over-zealous dad leaped forward, "Oh, no, he can't answer that."

I told the GI thanks and left.

When Jim Smith gets back to Tecumseh from Germany, he ought to be good for a few interesting tales.

Remember, last week, when that glider went down in communistic east Germany during the International Soaring Competition?

Its pilot was Dick Schrered of Toledo and the glider he was in was designed by Jim and built by the pair.

Jim was on the three-man team with Dick for the meet and he went behind the Iron Curtain, after official permission had been granted, to help retrieve the glider and Dick.

Annual Moonlight Sale in Tecumseh this summer should be bigger and better than the 1959 edition.

The event is slated for July 16, a Friday evening.

Shops will close at 6 p.m., then open again from 9 until midnight.

Last year about 4,000 were in town for the unique sale.

Among new features will be square dance competition and other outdoor entertainment.

Walt Nichols, manager of the Strand Theatre, says that he'll play a science-fiction horror movie, starting at 12 p.m. to cap the evening.

Sponsor of the Moonlight Sale will be the retail division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Civic Center Auditorium Given Biggest Vote

Folks in Tecumseh prefer a civic center - auditorium plan above all others, Dr. Robert Laidlaw, FACT committee chairman, told an audience of 125 at a town hall meeting Tuesday.

Reporting on the recent questionnaire, Dr. Laidlaw said that 1,980 were completed and returned before quitting time.

Of the 1,011 folks who stated a prefence for a project, the civic center-auditorium idea drew the vote of 23%.

Running behind this were:

2. Library—16%
3. Swimming facilities—15%
4. Recreation program—14½%
5. Teen Club 13%
6. Park facilities—10%
7. Artificial ice rink 8¾%

In the general questioning, 442 persons said they wanted a community center-auditorium and 420 a full-time recreation plan.

As for the library, 229 wanted a new one and 397 said remodel the present one.

A whopping 80% or 838 people said something should be done for teenagers and of this total, 67% felt the high school cafeteria should be used for a Teen Club, while 13% opinioned there should be a new structure.

A total of 580 people said they would like to see something done for parks. As to the swimming program, 232 wanted additional facilities. The idea of enclosing the present pool drew favorable response from 417.

The ice rink idea received 417 "yes" replies.

Miscellaneous suggestions included street improvements (with which the Tecumseh Community Fund Foudation has nothing to do), cutting taxes (ditto), YWCA, YMCA, bomb shelters, buying Tecumseh Country Club's golf course, softening city's water supply.

☆

DR. LAIDLAW explained that the civic center and auditorium should probably have been two separate questions.

Several persons at the meeting said they definitely wanted an auditorium, while others favored strictly a community center.

Cost factors in both instances would be tremendous, Bob Moore of the FACT committee said that an auditorium seating 1,000 (which would not take care of commencement exercises here) would cost between $500,000 and $700,000.

Another FACT committee member, Mrs. Donald Cobb, felt that something should be started now, with the near $80,000 available to the Foundation.

Robert Bonner, who serves both FACT and the city planning commission, explained that experts say population of Tecumseh could be 14,000 in 10 years.

City Police Car Is Demolished in Wild Chase

A wild, police car-drunk driver chase ended early Wednesday with both vehicles being completely wrecked.

Fred Burton, 34, of Adrian, who caused all the trouble, is now a guest in Lenawee County jail.

The event started when Tecumseh policeman Don Rodehaver and his partner Robert Arwood stopped Burton for running a red light at the Four Corners.

They discovered Burton had been drinking and started to escort him to the patrol car. He broke loose and raced back to his auto.

The chase was on. It weaved through Tecumseh streets, then out Occidental and finally ended at M-52 and Valley Rd.

Burton's car ran a road block and crashed into a bridge. Hot in pursuit, the Tecumseh policemen couldn't stop in time and also rammed the bridge.

Rodehaven was pinned between the car and bridge.

Burton was arrested by aHrwood and members of the sheriff's patrol, who followed from the road block.

Both Rodehaver and Arwood were taken to Bixby Hospital and treated for cuts and bruises.

IN THEY GO—Swin season opened with a real splash Friday as the local pool opened its doors on one of the hottest days of June. Kids stood in line for more than an hour to get their chance for a dip. But it was worth the wait, agreed the cool young folks. On Saturday, the situation was much the same. This year Carl Hale returns as director of the pool. Swimming lessons begin Monday and so far 350 kids have registered.

Rural Taxes for Schools Would Zoom

Rural taxpayers will be hardest hit in the Tecumseh school board's quest for two additional mills, superintendent James McDowell told more than 50 persons attending Monday's session in the high school cafeteria.

Explaining that city residents actually would pay less taxes than last year—even with the added two mills—the school administrator said farm folks face a different situation.

This all comes about as a result of recent changes in state equalized evaluation.

Six months ago, in the City of Tecumseh, the figure was slashed by 20%.

Balance of the school district's 86-square-mile area was unchanged.

Then, in early May, the equalized evaluations throughout the state were increased. In this area they went up 13.6%.

☆

A FARM OWNER in the audience asked Mr. McDowell to compute his taxes for the coming year, with the proposed two mills, also include school bonds.

His farm lands are in Raisin Township, have been assessed locally at $20,000. However, on state equalized, they are reputed to be worth $43,400.

His total school tax would be $751.68.

The gentleman explained that last year he paid just under $600.

Art Eaton, Tecumseh Township treasurer, told the group that in collection of last year's taxes, many residents paid only at the last minute and with borrowed money, indicating they could ill afford to pay more.

John Zeigler, a Tecumseh attorney, predicted that "a day of reckoning is coming" and the whole tax system must be changed. He said that on several occasions he has advocated a "direct school tax" which would be paid by everyone over 21 years of age.

Mr. McDowell said he had no control over the evaluations, that this was set by state officials.

He emphasized the school's need for additional funds because the district's total valuation is now $34 million, as compared to $35 million last year.

This would mean less income at a time when the district is growing and faces a deficit of $53,000.

MR. McDOWELL was asked if various things could be trimmed.

He explained that the board had considered:

1. No bus service—state pays 75% of cost, local saving would be $15,000.
2. Hot lunch—to cut out would save $15,000. At present 500 to 600 students are served.
3. Instrumental music program —save $12,650.
4. Vocal music—save $16,209.
5. Band, chorus, debate, clubs, athletics—save $17,522.

Physical education, which costs $48,382 for elementary, junior and senior highs, was considered, but the idea dropped because the state requires it.

The board weighed these possibilities and decided each was vital to the over-all educational program.

It was also explained that the board is committed to the 10-months year. This will cost $36,000. Teachers were hired at a new salary base of $4,500 (over the old $4,200) to cover the full 10-months plan.

Boardmen felt the added advantages of increasing the year was worth the cost.

☆

IN OTHER action, the board accepted the resignation of Alan Seager from the library board and tabled bids for school busses until Wednesday night.

Mr. Seager, an outstanding member of the library board, was chairman.

Bids for seven busses were received from E. L. Simmons Inc., Schneider Bros. Garage, and Tecumseh Equipment Company.

The board also approved placing on the July ballot, an increase in its board members salaries, amounting to $15 each per year.

Newest Business To Open

Another business opens here.

It's the Tecumseh Beauty Salon, which is owned and operated by Mrs. Homer Humphres.

To be located in the Mull Building, on west M-50 across from the A&W Drive-In, the grand opening has been set for Monday.

Free coffee and donuts are being served to all who drop in, explains Mrs. Humphres.

For one and one-half years, Mrs. Humphres was a hair stylist at the local House of Glamour, following her graduation from Jackson Beauty College.

The new shop will be open six days a week and on Thursday and Friday evenings.

Mrs. Humphres and her husband, along with their son, Billy, age 6, live at 809 Russell Rd. Mr. Humphres is employed in Adrian.

Royal Welch Will Oppose Rollo Conlin

Royal E. Welch, Tecumseh councilman, announced Tuesday that he will oppose Rollo G. Conlin on the Aug. 2 primary for state representative from Lenawee County.

The local city official, elected here in April, deposited $100 with the county clerk Tuesday in lieu of circulating petitions.

Mr. Conlin, a representative for the past 16 years and a Tipton farmer, gained statewide attention last year when he questioned the legality of the sales tax plan and promoted a state income tax.

Mr. Welch, who also is a local businessman and past officer of service clubs and veteran organizations, says "Lenawee County should have a candidate who is opposed to the state income tax."

Opening Date

Safety Glasses Saves Left Eye of Products Man

Ray Shephard of Britton, a Tecumseh Products Co. machine operator, is grateful for the firm's eye-protection policy.

Ray had his safety glasses on Thursday morning when a quarter-inch drill in his machine snapped during an indexing operation.

A piece nearly an inch long, smashed into the left lens of Ray's eye piece.

The lens was completely shattered, but it remained intact in the frame, reports safety director Tim Neill.

The inside of the lens was as smooth as when it was ground.

After the lens was replaced temporarily with a plain one, Ray was back on his job in 30 minutes.

Class of 1960 Is the Largest in THS History

Robert Dick, a member of Tecummseh High School's Class of 1960, gave the commencement address before a packed auditorium Thursday evening.

He spoke on the subject, "There is No Security On This Earth—Only Opportunity."

This was the largest graduation class in school history.

Marjorie Van Valkenburg played the processional as 129 seniors marched in, attired in cap and gowns, the men in blue and the young ladies in white.

The Rev. Blair Bashore, James McDowell and Neville L. Hart, on the speaker platform, were also attired in caps and gowns at the request of the class.

The Rev. Bashores represented doctor of divinity, Mr. McDowell's and Mr. Hart's master's degrees from the University of Michigan.

Janet Graham gave the salutatory address speaking in gratitude to both faculty and parents.

The High School Chorus sang several selections under the direction of Leslie Bennett, accompanied by Carole Kilburn.

In giving the valedictory address, Marilou Layton said, "True education must have as its goal the advancement of civilization not the aggrandizement of the individual."

THE LIBRARY idea was discussed and the Rev. Frank Hawthorne of FACT stated that consultants, called in to make a study of the Tecumseh Library, recommended a 12,000-square-foot facility, with 45,000 volumes.

This is nearly four times the size of the present library.

The Rev. Mr. Hawthorne added that the library board is currently investigating a $24,000 renovation and repair program.

An analysis of city parks, given by Mrs. Richard Coak, showed "potential is tremendous" but that to date little has been done to develop these areas Some are filled with weeds.

This situation should be remedied before any new areas are started, she said.

Entire findings of the FACT questionnaire and the committee's detailed study of all possible plans—which fill a bulging fat manilla folder—will be turned over to trustees of the Foundation, who'll eventually make a decision.

Monday's gathering was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club with Herle Hoag as chairman.

The Rev. and Mrs. Gresham of the Presbyterian Church will meet with the fellowship group Thursday, June 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna.

Sermon at Presbyterian Church

This Sunday's sermon, entitled "Casual Living" is based on an incident from the Old Testament. The incident involves Elisha, the prophet, Naaman, a Syrian prince, and the servant of Elisha, Gehazi.

On the surface, it is the story of an unfaithful servant. Beneath the surface, it is the story of a man by the name of Gehazi who lived in the presence of greatness, but did not recognize that greatness.

He witnessed a remarkable example of the power and love of God, but was only concerned with how he could exploit it.

Gehazi was one of those people who through casual living allowed the sacred to become commonplace and thus missed the presence of God in the life around him.

Deacons will meet next Tuesday evening, June 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

The Women's Association will have a potluck supper Wednesday, June 22 at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Wilbur Boyce. All women of the church are invited.

Atomic Force

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Bible School Starts Monday at Gloria Dei

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will hold Vacation Church School June 20 through July 1, from 9:15 to 11:30 a.m.

Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Stanly Rentschler and Mrs. Ed Bunge.

Altar Society Again Chooses Mrs. Wallace

Vice-president — Mrs. Lawrence Cote

Corresponding secretary — Mrs. Kenneth Kitson

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

An independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

2 Mills Are Needed . . .

After careful research and study during the past week, publishers of The Herald come to this conclusion:

Whether we like it or not, Tecumseh schools do need an additional two mills for operation.

We don't want to see our school program, one of the finest in this state, slashed. In fact, there would probably be little sense in dropping busses (the state pays for 75% of this anyway), athletics, music, band. In the final analysis, these activities return great dividends for the money expended.

Their presence as part of our curriculum greatly enhances the education of youngsters in the Tecumseh District.

A two-mill jump would have two effects in the Tecumseh District.

1. Within the city, because of the recent drop in property valuations, the taxpayer would still pay less per thousand than he did last year.

2. In the seven townships of the district, there will be a large increase because, instead of a drop in state equalized evaluations through rural areas, there was a 13.6% increase.

This second effect is best explained with this graph:

Townships	Increased Cost from 13.6%	Additional Cost of 2 Mills	Total Cost Including 2 Mills
Adrian	4.28	4.32	8.60
Clinton	2.38	3.26	5.64
Franklin	4.55	4.12	8.67
Macon	4.33	3.82	8.15
Raisin	4.76	4.12	8.88
Ridgeway	1.95	3.78	5.73
Tecumseh	2.59	2.70	5.29

(Figures are dollars per thousand of state equalized evaluation.)

Thus, property owners in Raisin Township will be hardest hit. As you'll note, even without two mills, school taxes rise $4.72 per thousand. Add onto this the proposed two mills and the total increase reaches $8.88 per thousand.

This change in the equalized exaluation was not made by school or local officials, but by the state. It touched almost every county in Michigan.

The city went up 13.6% — however this was six months after it had been clipped by 20%.

. . . Here's Reason Why

Investigation shows that the School District must have two mills or continue operating at a deficit and below its budget.

Present deficit is $93,000.

The schools' 1959-'60 budget was approximately $894,000, income $882,000, or about $12,000 less than what was needed. This $12,000 shortage is included in the $93,000 deficit.

The 1960-'61 budget is $1,029,000 and income $999,000 or about $30,000 less than needed.

Next month the schools will reduce the $93,000 debt to $53,000 with a past-due payment from state aid. This means that the schools will carry an old $53,000 deficit, plus a new $30,000 shortage, or a total debt of $83,000 into the 1960-'61 school year without means to reduce it.

The new budget of over $1 million includes the $39,300 for eight new teachers, $36,000 for changing the school year from 9½ months to 10, and the $7,000 plus lost when the state juggled city evaluations.

The total income also includes approximately $37,700 in state aid from an additional 240 students for the 1960-'61 term.

Passage of two mills in July, plus a $25,000 gift, would carry the schools through the coming year.

In fact, as Supt. James McDowell pointed out at the school board meeting Monday night, it will eventually lead to erasing the debt and creating a small surplus over a period of a few years.

This surplus of about $50,000 will be used in a couple of years for additions to to the Central School, which at that time will have upwards of 600 junior high students.

The proposed two mills has caused considerable confusion and study.

Many at Monday's session, including rural people, openly admitted that the schools need the extra money to educate 3,425 students next year.

The question in July is whether the people will vote for the millage.

The Herald feels they should.

$50 Scholarship Given

The fifth and sixth grade bands, directed by James Harirs, presented a concert for the Band Boosters Club in the high school gymnasium.

Vickie Hanna and Sherry Harper played a flute duet.

Linda Bush, Marilyn Dick, Beth O'Neil and Janice Reed presented a clarinet quartet and Emily Manwaring played a flute solo, accompanied by Linda Gilbert.

Scholarships of $50 each were awarded to Dorinda Winters, a member of the high school band, and Marilyn Mumaw, from the junior band.

Miss Winters will enter Michigan State University in the fall and Miss Mumaw's scholarship is for Western Michigan University.

About 270 attended the event, the final meeting of the Band Boosters for the year.

With Tecumseh Teens

By Mary Seager

The second step in the week-long procession toward graduation was taken Wednesday night by 129 seniors from Tecumseh High School — Class Night.

The Top Twenty scholastically were in charge of the program, presenting the class history, the giftatory, the prophecy, and the will.

Paul Surratt, senior class president, presented the traditional key to the school to Dale Tuckey, junior class president.

This key is a large gilt one, on which ribbons of each classes colors have been tied. The ribbons have the names of all the class members printed on them.

Marilou Layton, Janet Graham and Carole Kilburn read the class history, which explained the class's activities for the past four years.

The class prophecy — with a prophecy for each class member — followed this. James Beach, Jon Cook, Brenda Hall, Ralph Helzerman, Linda Kelly, Doris Oliphant, Mary Seager and David VanValkenburg were the prophets.

The gifts were given to each class member by Lee Britton, Jane Crawford, Kendra Frost, Karen Hall, Sylvia Klught, and Steve Kruger.

Brenda Bugbee, Ann Cameron and Alice Titley were the lawyers reading the class will.

Paul Surratt gave a short and to the point president's address.

Commencement took place the next night.

The seniors marched in to "Pomp and Circumstance" played by Marjorie VanValkenburg gowned in their class colors, blue and white, with blue and white carnations (class flower) pinned to the gowns.

Marilou Layton gave the valedictory stressing the need for realistic views on education.

Paul Surratt presented the class gift to the school. Bob Dick gave the address.

Harley Slick presented the VFW awards, pins to the valedictorian and the salutatorian. Mr. Hart presented the various scholarships and awards to the class members who had earned them.

Mr. Hart presented the class while Mr. McDowell presented the diplomas to 129 happy and relieved seniors.

The party given at the Country Club for the graduates by their parents was a huge success. Everyone enjoyed it a great deal and stayed until the last possible minute, 6 a.m. Friday.

☆

The Honors Assembly Friday morning opened when the weary, weary seniors marched into the gymnasium for the last time in their robes.

Mr. Brazee was first with the track awards. He presented the trophies for the Regional and the Tecumseh Relays championships to Mr. Hart.

He then named the letterwinners for the year. Roger Mead was high point man for the team.

Reserve and manager awards were given out and then Mr. Brazee gave Aden Mead a plaque for having been so helpful and interested in the track team.

Camilla Grigg gave all the seniors leaving Future Teachers awards.

The freshman basketball numerals were given out by Mr. Hoffman.

The band awards for all four years were presented to the band members by Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Babcock gave awards for debate to Roger Mead, Marilou Layton, Bob Dick and Jon Cook.

Everyone on this year's "Scout" staff received recognition for their hard work.

Mrs. Service was presented with flowers by Dave VanValkenburg on behalf of the College Prep English classes.

Bookkeeping awards for high scores on the tests this year went to Marjorie VanValkenburg, Dorothy Mackey and Donna Cubberly — high scorers in that order. Mr. Beattie also presented honorable mention to Janice George and Joan Allshouse.

Chorus awards were passed out by Mr. Bennett and the audience was delighted when Ralph Helzerman sang "Sixteen Tons".

Bowling and cheerleading awards were given out by Miss Bierly.

Mike Tucker and David Blanden were awarded golf letters.

Mr. Lectka gave out the varsity baseball letters.

Future Nurse pins and guards were presented to members by Vera Michajlenko.

Pat Gurtzweiler did the honors for the Future Homemakers.

Jim Curth presented Coach Lectka with a check for $195 to buy sports jackets for all the coaches from the Varsity Club. Jim was also chosen as Senior Athlete of the Year by the Club.

Marilou Layton and Mary Seager presented Mrs. Service with a gift from the 1960 annual staff.

☆

As I was among the weary, weary seniors Friday morning, I could not muster the strength to copy all the names for all of the awards. As a result the only cnes I have are the ones I knew about before hand.

☆

Since this will be my last Tecumseh Teens column I would like to thank all my readers and wish them a wonderful vacation.

Light Starts It

The Tecumseh fire department responded to an alarm Friday at 8:30 p.m. when a fluorescent light fixture shorted out at the Tecumseh Market on Russell Rd. Damage was confined to the light fixture itself.

TO THE EDITOR

I have read the articles in the Herald about our schools and the raise in school taxes.

Why can't Tecumseh do as other schools do when there is such a shortage of funds?

Why not cut out all the extra activities which are so unnecessary, and go back to nine months of school instead of ten.

If our children were taught the necessary subjects I'm sure it could be done in a nine month period and look at the expense it would eliminate.

Most of the rural people are really hit hard by all this taxation and with so many layoffs in our factories. I can't see where there is much prosperity.

I feel that most of us are paying all we can afford so why don't we find a way to cut expenses instead of raising them each year.

I wonder how many people feel as we do about this situation. I am hoping more people will express their ideas as I have done.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Harold Gove

OLD CARS—Mr. and Mrs. Yale Kerby of Tecumseh (above) were among spectators on hand to view antique cars, which filled the streets of Clinton Saturday. The vehicles ranged in age and style all across the map. One thing they had in common: each was shined to a high gleam and looked as though it had just rolled off the assembly line. How we Americans love the automobile.

Ice Cream - 'holiday offender'

By ROYAL WELCH

Ice cream — that wonderful, tasty stuff—is a real holiday offender. With summer now on the calendar, many a mother will, for a moment or two, wish it had never been invented.

It needn't be too big a headache, really. Here are a few tips on how to keep the problem of Johnny - or - Susy - and-Screem-Scone to a minimum.

WASHABLE GARMENTS:

As soon as the ice cream has stained the garment, wash off all of it that you can with a moist cloth.

Use water only.

Later, before washing, soak it in clear water.

Be sure, of course, that the stain is completely out before ironing.

DRY-CLEANABLE GARMENTS:

Leave the stain completely alone. Do not wipe or rub in any way. This merely works the stain into the fibers and makes it more difficult to remove.

Bring that garment to us to be cleaned as soon after staining as practical. And, when you do, please tell us about the stain. Sometimes a stain is not easily seen, and unless told about it we might not employ the special "spot digesting" techniques called for.

In any event, either way — whether you wash it out yourself, or bring it to us to be cleaned—you may be sure of complete ice cream spot removal—as well as good cleaning, always, when you BRING IT TO Welch Cleaners.

On firemen, pharmacists, and physicians

■ Firemen, pharmacists, and physicians accept as part of their lives some odd working hours. That's because sickness, like fire, doesn't work a short day. We stay open longer than most stores because our important job is helping to fight sickness.

We're also pretty handy when you need a host of nonmedicinal things. But the main thing is that we're usually around when your doctor and you need pharmaceutical service.

Siena Heights Graduate School Opens June 20

Siena Heights graduate division has announced the 1960 graduate summer school schedule.

Geared to the North Central Association's criteria for approval of secondary schools, the program focuses attention on guidance and counseling.

Occupational and educational information, school supervision, modern philosophies of education, and advanced educational psychology, all three semester hour courses, include work in the areas required as professional preparation for school counselors.

Among the classes offered in the subject cognates is a study of literary sources.

Especially designed for the teachers of world literature in high school, the syllabus of this lecture course is being prepared by a staff of professors who will emphasize the literary and philosophical background of universal literary genres.

With registration still incomplete, the graduate division lists 150 for the summer term, June 20-July 29.

Gift Is Given to the Victims of Earthquake

Mrs. Glen Driscoll entertained 26 members and guests of the St. Peter's Guild at her home Thursday for a picnic.

Mrs. C. B. Brock presided, opening the meeting with the members praying the Lord's prayer.

The group gave a donation to Chilean earthquake victims through the Red Cross. Plans were made for a breakfast to be held July 14 at the home of Mrs. P. G. Colgrove with Mrs. Thomas O'Hara as chairman.

Another breakfast will be held Aug. 18 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Gilmore with Mrs. C. O. Butler as chairman.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Frank Hawthorne. The group then went for a ride on the Red Mill Pond on the Driscoll raft.

This will be the last session until September.

Nursing Field Is Wide Open

TOLEDO — The four major fields, which employ up to 92% of all the registered professional nurses in America, are wide open with opportunities for the young graduates who will soon be leaving schools of nursing over the nation.

This appraisal of the nursing situation was made here today by Edna E. Sharritt, director of nursing service and education at the Toledo Hospital.

Miss Sharritt estimated that currently there are from 70,000 to 90,000 openings. There will be a few over 30,000 graduates in 1960, she said.

Methodists Reach Goal

A special offering goal of $1,400 by Tecumseh Methodists has been reached, the Rev. James Nixon told his congregation Sunday.

"We had undertaken a goal of $1,400 for the down-payment on new property adjacent to the present church and parsonage location.

"We began the purchase of this property with no cash available for it, although regular budget income will meet periodic payments. In one week our people, in addition to other giving, topped the goal and we are thankful."

Mr. Nixon explained in Sunday's service some of the requirements set by the state fire marshall, including fire escape from the second floor.

"We will plan to do this work and some needed painting so that the house will be ready for church school use in the fall."

The recent annual meeting authorized the creation of a special committee to recommend to the Official Board a name for the house, policy and proceedures as to its use, and to list and secure the necessary equipment.

"We will need a used refrigerator and small electric stove for the kitchen, and other items of equipment," said Mr. Nixon.

"We hope to have a work bee to do the painting."

The committee will include representatives of men's and women's groups, and the commissions on education and finance, as well as two of the church trustees.

WHAT'S COOKING?

Delicious Salad

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"She's wonderful to us," said Mrs. Jack Curtiss when asked about her mother, Mrs. Waldo Mohr, who is featured in the cooking column this week.

Mrs. Mohr keeps their home lovely at 214 W. Logan St. for her husband, who is a laboratory technician at Tecumseh Products Co.

Flowers bloom there the year around. In the winter, African violets enhance the rooms with pretty blossoms.

At present tulips, lilacs, red bud and Japonica are in full bloom. A little later, hybrid roses will be beautiful and fragrant.

Mrs. Mohr taught elementary education before her marriage. The couple lived on a farm home in Hillsdale County previous to their coming to Tecumseh.

They have two children. Robert is married and has three daughters, Vicky Sue, Cindy Lou and Jo Elaine.

Lenore, Mrs. Jack Curtiss, and her husband have one son, Jackie Mohr Curtiss, and two daughters, Trudy Lee and Beth Ann.

All of the youngsters love to visit Grandma and her cookie jar. Many times they spend weekends with the Mohrs.

Mrs. Mohr enjoys cooking and baking as well as gardening.

She is a member of the Garden Club, DAR, the Methodist Church and the VFW Auxiliary. She is a past-president of the Auxiliary

Poison Control Centers Located in 23 Cities

Twenty-six poison control centers in Michigan are sources of specific information for antidotes for poisons.

Each of the centers has a list of ingredients found in trade name perticides and other agricultural chemicals or any other substance that could cause poisoning.

When told what caused the poisoning, the center can give the exact treatment or antidote.

Adrian — Poison Control Center, Emma L. Bixby Hospital.

Ann Arbor — Poison Control Center, University Hospital, 1313 E. Ann St.

Jackson — Poison Treatment Center, Foote Memorial Hospital

Ypsilanti — Poison Treatment Center, Beyers Hospital

All centers in the state are part of the National Clearinghouse for Poison Control Centers. Some of the centers offer not only information but treatments of poison cases as well.

Services of the centers are intended mainly for doctors in the treatment of poison cases. However, the offices, operated 24 hours a day, also give emergency poison treatment advice over the phone.

Weatherman Pleads '5th' Chairman Says

June 20 through 25 is carnival week in Tecumseh.

Tecumseh's Jaycees are sponsoring their annual homecoming activity at Meyers Aircraft Co. north of the city on M-52.

The carnival has become an annual undertaking of the Jaycees as a public service "to the fastest growing community in Lenawee County."

Proceeds from the carnival will be used for future civic activities.

Al Barrett, planning committee chairman, said that he is receiving fine cooperation from every source except one — the weather man.

"He is using the Fifth Amendment to avoid the whole subject," says Al.

Special plans are being made for the younger set for a day of fun on Saturday, June 25.

Reduced prices will prevail and free bicycles will be given away that day.

why Mercury is the better low-price car!

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:

You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier. You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).

Mercury has at least two dozen extra values in all. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money in the bargain?

PRICES START $63 TO $66* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a "stripped" Mercury. This price comparison is based on a de luxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Mercury Montereys are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, other low-price cars such as the V-8 Furys and Impalas.

No wonder Mercury is so popular this year! Many low-price-car buyers have discovered they can get far more of everything they want with Mercury. Come on in and see for yourself!

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested 1960 retail base prices for lowest-priced V-8 models.

Giant Sparklers Are Hazard, Police Say

Giant sparklers, one of the most hazardous devices appearing in Michigan, are singled out in a warning on illegal fireworks to merchants and residents by the fire marshal division of the state police.

Reports of unlawful and dangerous fireworks being stocked up by merchants prompted the caution.

Risks of arrest and personal injury confront those who involve themselves in the sale, possession or use of illegal fireworks.

Violation of the law is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $100 or 90 days in jail, or both.

Virtually all fireworks are illegal in Michigan, regardless of type and size, except that qualified organizations, upon proper application for the issue of a permit, can possess and exhibit fireworks for public display.

Legal only for individual use are the caps for cap pistols and the small sparklers containing not more than .0125 of a pound of burning elements.

The oversize sparklers burn fiercely, are unpredictable and constitute a definite fire and injury danger.

A bulletin for all home gardeners has just been revised by the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University.

Copies are now available at the Lenawee county extension office in Adrian at the Courthouse.

The Home Vegetable Garden" prepared by the MSU departments of horticulture, botany and plant pathology, entomology and soil science, now contains the latest up-to-date information on home gardens.

A 90-page bulletin with many photographs, "The Home Vegetable Garden" devotes over half of its pages to cultural directions for growing most common vegetables.

This includes recommended varieties, insects and diseases and their control for each vegetable.

A garden calendar and a chart of all-purpose insecticides and fungicide mixtures can be found in this pamplet.

There are also instructions on cultivation and weed control, planning the garden, and garden soil.

Black Bass Season Opens

Michigan's black bass season opens June 18, offering widespread sport through Sept. 11 on trout lakes and streams and Dec. 31 on all other waters, including the Great Lakes.

Large and smallmouths are well distributed with one or both species found in more than 90 percent of Michigan's 11,037 inland lakes.

They also offer ample angling opportunities in weedy bays and along rocky shores of the Great Lakes.

Residents may fish for bass in the Great Lakes and their connecting waters without a license.

Those trying their luck on inland lakes and streams need an annual license costing $2 the same as last year.

Richard Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnston of 114 N. Oneida St., received a promotion to Airman first class June 1. He enlisted March 11, 1958 and is stationed at Sembach Air Base near Kaiserslautern, Germany.

129 Trout Are Helped Upstream

Conservation Department fisheries men lifted 129 rainbow trout over Tippy dam in the Manistee river this spring, their best effort since 1956.

Department biologists noted a drop from the year before in the incidence of lamprey scars. The fish were also examined for jaw tags and diseases before being transplanted upstream to spawn.

James Thompson (1700-1748) said:

"IT WILL ALWAYS DO TO CHANGE FOR THE BETTER"

The pharmaceutical manufacturers are engaged in a continuous search to find better drugs. No matter how good any medicine works, they are always trying to create a newer one that will be still more effective.

Each year we destroy medicines which have been replaced by others. They have become worthless. When you consider the research cost of producing new drugs and losses from obsolete ones, it is amazing the average cost of all prescriptions is only about $3.00.

Korean Farmers Happy Over Aid from Local Man

Fay Whelan, local implement dealer, was instrumental in getting parts for a plow, which is used in Korea by a Catholic priest and his people.

The Rev. Fr. Vincent J. Hoffman, formerly of Jackson, has been in Koisan, Korea for several years as a missionary.

He felt that since the area was best suited to farming, help in that line was most essential.

After obtaining the one bottom plow, of course, the points were next in order and that's where Mr. Whelan was able to help.

The priest's brother, Julious Hoffman of Jackson wrote to Mr. Whelan, enclosing pictures of the plow, drawn by oxen, in action in Korea.

Box 74,
Kalaupapa, Molokai,
Hawaii

Dear Marian,

There are 7 islands that make Hawaii. All these islands have people living on it. The smallest is Niihau and it is a private island. You must first have permission to visit. Hawaii is the largest. Right now the volcano is active. It is flowing all her lava to where the people has settled. A lot of houses and farm land has been destroyed.

I live on Molokai as you know. We have a cliff and ocean around us. Just hansen or leper patient's live here and the workers. The population is about 300. About 215 are patients.

Most are released patients. My husband and I are released patients too. I am scared and dis husband was lucky he looks normal. For this regson we continue to live here even after we are released.

We take Sulfone drugs to get well and stay well. We still have sores because of the past scars and losing sense of touch and feel. That happens to certain parts of the body. It usually is on our hands and feet. We have almost the same warm climate here in the islands.

It does get real cold now and then. We do not have snow. You asked me if I liked snow. I can tell you that I don't think I can live with snow. My blood is too thin for it. It always goes up and down.

I think its for being ill so long. I've been first admitted in July 1941. I was transfered to Kalaupapa in 1943 Sept. We do a lot of pole salt water fishing here. I love it. Some hunting is done such as for goats and wild pigs and once in a while when a deer comes over our side of the island. I am going to be 38 come this April. My husband will be 50 this year. I am Korean.

I have a girl 18 she lives in Utah with a married sister of mine. My boy lives in Honolulu with my father, he is 17. My mother died last August of the age of 57 my dad is 83 years old. There were seven of us kids three boys and four girls.

My children were from my first husband before I was admitted to the leper hospital.

My days are the same almost everyday. I work at the hospital for small wages. So one week I work at 7 to 1 a.m. and the other week 1 to 7 p.m. and so on. I do my own house work. I have a house of our own like any normal people. We keep house cook and so forth like anyone else.

Those who do not wish to keep house live dormitory style. I keep gold fishes as a pastime. We also have 10 cats and one dog. We go to the hospital when we need rest or the care in the hospital.

I also keep some hot house plants. Orchids, maiden hair fern, anthuriums and some others. So I am pretty busy. My husband tends our yard. We fly on the plane when we go out of here. Last year I made four trips to Honolulu.

Aloha,
Elaine

SENATOR JOE McCARTHY by Richard Rovere—Senator McCarthy was probably the most coptroversial figure of our time, and provided a spectacle unmatched in American politics. He insulted Presidents, humiliated generals, and put himself above the authority of the United States Senate. In an analysis of his character and motivations, the author lays bare the reasons for McCarthy's downward plunge while still in full possession of his powers.

EVA by Meyer Levin—In his first novel since Compulsion, the author celebrates the courage that comes from love of life as he tells the story of a daring Jewish girl who flees from death in occupied Poland, hides in the very heart of Germany, and moves in disguise among the Nazis, determined to outwit and escape them.

THE LOTUS EATERS by Gerald Green—This teeming novel has a fine supply of both excitement and comedy, growing out of its varied cast of characters, and contrasts the garish opulence and gold-plated chicanery of a Florida resort with the excitement of archaeologisfs digging in search of an ancient world.

LORENA by Frank Slaughter—The Georgia plantation owners living in the shadow of Yankee-occupied Atlanta knew the worst was yet to come when the dreaded General Sherman began his march to the sea. Lorena Selby was a delicate, fragile beauty, but the tall smiling Pennsylvanian who arrived at Selby Hall was not the fearful invader Lorena had expected. Suddenly she, so ready to defy an entire army, found herself weakening toward one lone Northern soldier.

CHEVROLET

OUT WHERE THE COUNTRY CAN TEAR A TRUCK TO PIECES—

Chevy middleweights get 1/3 more work done in a day!

Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride paving every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sideway on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

School Tax Expert Speaking Here

An expert on school taxation from Lansing will be guest speaker at a town hall meeting in the United Products Workers Union Hall Thursday, June 30.

James Borough, financial consultant for the state Department of Public Instruction, will talk and then answer questions about state equalized evaluation.

The meeting is free and open to all residents of the Tecumseh School District.

A panel, made up of Mr. Borough, James McDowell, school superintendent; Aden Mead, vice-president of the Tecumseh school board; Cal Zorn, city assessor and engineer; and Wilfred Waldron, Tecumseh Township supervisor, will discuss taxation.

Don Murphy, Chamber of Commerce executive secretary, will act as moderator.

All 13 candidates running in the July school board election have been invited to take part.

Coffee and cookies are going to be served by members of the Kiwanis Club, sponsor of the event. Co-chairmen are Gene Tuckey and Dr. Richard Coak. The Union is donating the use of the hall.

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

How's this for speed?

Five tons of refrigeration condensing units left Tecumseh Products Co. late one day last week and arrived at the customer's door the next day—in Basel, Switzerland.

This shipment was the largest ever to go by air.

It was nearly 5 p.m. when a truck left here for Metro Airport with the 100 units. Northwest Airlines took over at this point and flew the load to New York.

At NYC, it was transferred to Swiss Airlines and soon was winging across the Atlantic.

The customer watched his units arrive about 2 p.m., the day after they rolled out of the Products.

As Americans we take many things for granted — especially our right to vote in free elections.

About half the population bothers.

How about you, are you registered to vote?

You're NOT if you haven't voted in the past four years. If you're a newcomer to the area, again you're NOT (unless you signed up with the city clerk or township clerk, depending upon where you live.)

There are some important votes taking place in the next few months.

1. School board election and two-mill question on July 11.

2. State Primary on Aug. 2.

3. Presidential in November.

If you're NOT registered, get on the rolls right now.

Registration deadline for the school election is July 1 and for the primaries July 5.

As to the school board balloting, there is considerable interest.

This is the biggest slate of candidates (13) to participate in a board race in many years.

In order to help voters become acquainted with folks appearing on the ballot, The Herald is running a series of articles on them.

A picture of each, along with a thumbnail sketch of the candidate, will appear, beginning this week.

Each was offered the opportunity to state the reason he or she is seeking a position on the board.

The Kiwanis Club is holding a "Meet the Candidates" session Thursday, June 30 in the Products Union Hall. This will be open to all and give voters a chance to question those running.

While snapping pictures of Tecumseh's two Methodist ministers—one going, one coming — an interesting story popped up.

The fathers of both the Revs. Jim Nixon and Allen Wittrup are Methodist ministers and have been long-time friends, Jim told me.

"My grandfather was a Methodist minister, too," added Mr. Wittrup.

"Gosh, so was mine," Jim rejoined.

"If your boy decides to become one," Mr. Wittrup went on, "the lineage won't be broken. Both of my sons say they're going to."

I'm sure that Tecumseh will like and enjoy Mr. Wittrup as much as we have Mr. Nixon.

When the Nixons arrived here, just three years ago, the local Methodist membership was 268. It now is 407 and the congregation has just purchased a large home next to the parsonage for church use.

Measles are the style this month.

"It's not an epidemic," stated one doctor, "Just more cases than usual at this time of year."

He has treated about 40 so far.

"Anything special?" he was asked.

"Well, they all yelled when they got their shots," was the response.

Both my kids are blotches of red at this point and about as listless as little ones can be.

It sure seems strange not having a running race or boxing match going on in the front room when daddy arrives home for lunch.

She Wins Grill

Mrs. William Baird was the lucky winner of the outdoor grill at the turkey supper Thursday in the VFW home. The Auxiliary is planning another supper for September.

VOL. 109 — ONE HUNDRED TENTH YEAR — NUMBER 36 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1960 18 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Unique Contract Signed

By JIM LINCOLN

The first deal of its kind for Tecumseh was adopted Monday night by council when officials voted to accept a "sale, buy-back, maintenance" contract with Schneider Bros. Garage for two new police cars.

Louis Schneider, president of the local agency, agreed to provide two cars and maintain them, excluding gasoline and insurance, for a period for one year for $150 a month each.

Schneider Bros. won the contract on a close 4-3 vote, with three members apparently holding out for the bid of $139 a month by Fisher Pontiac Motors.

Fisher's bid, however, was fixed on a two-year basis and not one year as requested.

Other biders were E. L. Simmons Inc. and Wilson Motor Sales, who asked $195 and $190.

Fisher's bid was on a two-year basis so that at the end of this period, the city would own both cars.

Schneider's proposal does not include ownership for the municipality, but would provide new cars at the end of 12 months or sooner.

One of the new patrol cars will replace the Rambler, which was destroyed last week, the other the 1958 Chevrolet.

Insurance on the Rambler came to $1,460 and Schneider Bros. is paying the city $400 for the Chevy, which had 90,000 miles on it.

This $1,860, explains City Manager Ed Nelson, will be placed in escrow in the event the city might wish to return to the old system of owning patrol cars at the end of the one-year experiment.

Mr. Nelson states that other communities have tried the "lease-type" idea on police cars and found it more economical.

Tecumseh has spent between $1,300 and $1,800 annually on cars, plus the initial investment of about $2,000.

☆

A PUBLIC hearing on July 18 was scheduled for changing the zoning of approximately 11 acres from A to B.

The area is just west of Ternes Rd. and north of Munger Rd., all within the city limits.

No immediate plans for subdividing are contemplated, according to William Powell, real estate agent, who had requested the change.

☆

IN OTHER action, Council:

Tabled the resignation of William Frownfelder from the Planning Commisison until further investigation.

Approved installation of curb and gutter on N. Van Buren, north of W. Logan.

Approved second reading of the weed ordinance.

METHODIST CLERGY—Looking into the future are two Methodist ministers, one coming to Tecumseh, the other leaving. The Rev. Allen Wittrup, left, asumes his duties at the local church Sunday, replacing the Rev. James Nixon, who has been named pastor of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. Both men are third generation Methodists ministers and this lineage may well continue. (Please see Long and Short column).

Methodist Minister Is Moved to Grosse Pointe

Tecumseh's Methodist minister for the past three years, the Rev. James Nixon, has been named pastor of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

The appointment was made by Bishop Marshall Reed, who also named Mr. Nixon's replacement here.

He'll be the Rev. Allen Wittrup, who since 1955 had been associate pastor of the Birmingham Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup takes over his Tecumseh pulpit this Sunday. The Nixons will move out of the local parsonage Tuesday and the Wittrup family moves in the following day.

The Wittrups—Mrs. Wittrup's first name is Esther—have three children, Larry, 19, a sophomore at Adrian College; Roger, 16, a junior in high school; and Barbara, 11, a seventh grader.

Mr. Wittrup, who is 48, was ordained in 1939. He has served Methodist churches in Park Rapids, Minn.; Minneapolis, Minn. and Watertown, S. D. before coming to Birmingham.

He graduated from John Fletcher College in Iowa, did post-graduate work at Dakota Wesleyan in South Dakota and graduate work at Garrett Seminary on the Northwestern University campus, where he received his BD degree.

Mr. Nixon, who also graduated from Garrett, attended the University of Michigan.

He had churches in Chicago; Munith, Minn. and Plainfield, Minn. prior to coming here.

The Nixons have two youngsters, Pamela, 11; and Tom, 13.

Their new home will be at 64 Moross Rd. in Grosse Pte. Farms.

The congregations at the Grosse Pointe Church numbers 1,100 and Mr. Nixon's staff will include a full-time director of religious education and a part-time director of youth work.

While in Tecumseh, Mr. Nixon was a trustee on the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, a member of the Exchange Club and president of the local Ministerial Association. He was vice-president of the county minister's group and its program chairman.

Mrs. Nelson — community service

The next meeting will be held July 27 at the home of Mrs. Helms.

No City, Just Dorothy's Name

Mrs. Victor Lawson says that either the nurses of Herrick Memorial Hospital are well known or else the state police are in "the know".

While she was in New Jersey recently she sent a card to Mrs. Dorothy Dechow, inadvertently addressing it with just the name, no city.

Surprisingly enough, Mrs. Dechow received the card. Claire Dechow is a state policeman.

Sizing Fabrics Good Ideas

By ROYAL WELCH

"Sizing" is an excellent way to keep garments looking better —especially during the summer months. Sizing can repel stains, retard wrinkling, and delay soiling. You can look fresher longer—in sized clothes.

Many fabrics are truly enhanced in appearance and wear when sized. (The use of starch in shirts is a good example.) Sizing is only "evil" when used to make a poor fabric look like a good one.

There are five types of sizing, each doing a specific job on specific fabrics:

1. Gelatin
2. Gum arabic
3. Gum tragacanth
4. Flax seed
5. Synthetic resins

We determine what's needed before cleaning, then apply it in the amount required prior to finishing.

That way you can be sure that your clothing will have the right body and weight to look better longer. Try it today.

11 Graduated

BOYSVILLE—Monsignor Carroll Deady of Detroit was principal speaker here last week when 11 seniors graduated from Boysville High School.

That WAS an Era!

Over 60 years ago, a banner hung across Chicago Street, as it was then called, and proudly announced that Tecumseh was "The Biggest Little Town On Earth."

That slogan was the symbol of the spirit of the "Tecumseh Indians," a notorious baseball team loved by the people of the village.

As long as anyone can remember, a ball club was a tradition in the summer months. There were accounts of games in the Herald over a century ago and a picture, faded with age, showed the "Blue Stockings" of 1876 in their visor caps and awkward uniforms.

But none of the early teams excelled the Indians.

THEY WERE not timid—they would try to wallop any team that dared to schedule a game. One day—a historic one—the team traveled to Mt. Clemens in Macomb County. There was an incident after the game the Indians won that is worth noting.

Mt. Clemens fans were fuming. Their team had been beaten by a remote village. Somehow, this defeat especially marred the team's record, if not its rooter's pride. So one of the club managers proposed that the Indians couldn't duplicate their feat. Tecumseh fans then raised $500 to match the wager.

Tecumseh became famous.

The five game series arranged between the two teams got more coverage on the sports pages of the Detroit News.

Joe Jackson, then sports editor of the News, held the stakes for the series and played it up in banner headlines.

His stories created statewide interest and by the time the Indians returned here to play the rest of the series, baseball history had been made.

☆

MEANWHILE, other towns in the state read about the revolution in Tecumseh. As a result, the Southern Michigan League was born. Mt. Clemens, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Bay City, Battle Creek, Saginaw, Flint and Tecumseh made up the league.

Then Tecumseh went beserk. Funds were collected to hire professional players and buy equipment.

A ball park was purchased and a grandstand was built.

Although the fans were loyal and avid, the club never recorded great profits. Reason: Tecumseh which had a population of 2,400 was the "baby" of the league and crowds at the ball-park were relatively small.

Only when the team played away from home—in a big park—was enough money made to meet expenses.

While here, the unmarried players on the team lived at the hotel that was the hub of Tecumseh. They attracted the attention of the young ladies in the village. There were frequent weddings.

☆

THE PLAYERS were admired and respected by the village. One who seems to be best remembered was Bo Slear who was awarded the Carnegie medal of honor.

While a crowd was skating on the Red Pond, an 11-year-old boy fell through the ice in deep water. After he had gone down for the third time, Bo Slear reached him. He then dove under the ice and brought the boy and himself to the surface.

Bo was presented a gold watch from Tecumseh besides the famous medal for his valor.

Other names were remembered, too. But Fred Merkle, the first baseman, is probably the one most likely to be recalled by baseball fans. He got Tecumseh into baseball's Hall of Fame.

During the Indians third winning season, 1907, players were observed by big league scouts. At the end of the season, Merkle was signed by the New York Giants who paid $2,500 for his services.

☆

HE HAD a few successful seasons while a Giant and then he had an infamous experience. He committed a unpardonable error. He failed to touch second base after getting a hit that would have scored the winning run.

Thus, the Giants lost the National League championship and Merkle acquired the name of "bonehead."

The same season Merkle was traded to the Giants, the Indians folded. Club owners, even though the team had won three league titles in five years, sold the players and the franchise was moved to Adrian. The books were cleared of debts and Tecumseh closed the chapter on its fanatical baseball history.

It was a sad ending for such a tough team. But there was a prayer uttered by the players and the fans, too, that showed the Indians were true champions. "O, God, help us to win, but if in Thy Inscrutable wisdom, Thou willest us not to win, then O God, make us good losers."

They demonstrated to themselves and to the village that Tecumseh was "The Biggest Little Town On Earth."

Dawn Patrol Rates as State's Largest

The Exchange Club's Dawn Patrol here Sunday was the largest held in the state so far this year.

About 250 planes landed at Meyers Airport, bringing passengers for the breakfast and demonstration by helicopters.

David Dick said that though the patrol seemed a little slow in coming, by eight o'clock the sky was filled with planes, waiting to land.

About 700 meals were served. There were no accidents.

Helzermans Are Honored by Children

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Helzerman were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when their children arranged an observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The couple were invited to a steak roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Pratt in Manchester.

Following the roast their daughters, Sylvia and Marilyn, and their son, Ralph, Jr., arrived with Mrs. Al Helzerman, Ann Carson and all of Dr. Helzerman's staff.

Decorated cakes made by Mrs. William Vollmer, Mrs. Robert Randall and Mrs. Elmer Staib were served for refreshments.

Saga of the Oaks Is Told

Ralph Sager, a Tecumseh electrician, says that probably the reason so many Tecumseh homes have solid oak beams in them is that a wide variety of oaks have always been plentiful in this area.

Mr. Sager is rewiring a home at 402 W. Chicago Blvd., where oak beams are 10 to 14 inches thick.

He found portions of an issue of a newspaper called Alexander's Weekly Messenger between pieces of flooring.

An interesting paragraph reads like this: "We noticed yesterday the arrival at St. Marks, of 33 Cuba bio — (torn out). While the vessel was at sea, the cook having slaughtered a pig, the dogs, excited by the smell of the blood, broke from their confinement, drove the crew into the rigging and kept possession of the deck for several hours before—"

The rest is torn away.

It would be interesting to know just what happened to this situation.

But back to the oak theory.

To bear out the thinking of Mr. Sager, he showed folks at The Herald two surveys from highway commissioners dated in 1837, using as landmarks the various kinds of oak trees.

"From a white oak tree, blazed and notched" is often used describing certain spots.

Charles Stearns and R. B. Gillespie were the two gentlemen who signed these surveys as highway commissioners. John Charles Manley of the Fire Department found these yellowed old papers.

'If Leaflets 3, Let It Be'

If you're taking a stroll through the woods these nice spring days, watch out for poison ivy, Dr. John S. Wisely, Director of the Lenawee County Health Department advises.

The big question is—how do you watch out for it when the plants grow in such a variety of forms? Poison ivy may grow as a small plant, a vine, a bush, or as a creeper along the ground.

Another barrier in recognizing poison ivy is that it resembles thousands of other plants which are harmless.

Here's a common sense rule for all lovers who like to tramp through the woods. "If leaflets three, let it be."

Another common sense precaution recommended by the health department is to always wash exposed parts of the body thoroughly when you return from a woods trip. Use a strong soap and leave the lather on for several minutes. (This will practically guarantee your not contracting poison ivy, which is caused by a highly irritating resinous oil seeping from the plant.

Thousands of Michiganders and others throughout the nation become victims of poison ivy each year. The truth about poison ivy, according to the health department, is that it is like so many other health problems easy to prevent, but difficult to treat and usually miserable for those who get it.

It is quite comomnly believed that poison ivy is gotten only by touching the plant itself. This, of course, is one way, but it also may be contracted by coming into contact with an animal or another person carrying some of the poisonous say from the poison ivy plant, or from exposed articles of clothing.

If you do get it, see your doctor right away. There are a lot of things he can do to relieve the itching and other miseries associated with poison ivy.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Ever Have That "Sinking" Feeling?

You probably know that "Chip" Wallace was just appointed swimming instructor at the Boys Club.

Seems in his first group, he had three youngsters who were hesitant even about the shallow end of the pool. They said "we'd sink." Of course, Chip didn't try to force them — he demonstrated. He jumped in, popped right up, explained that body buoyancy had pushed him back to the surface.

However, one of the youngsters shook his head in disbelief. "Gee," he said, "I sure hope Mr. Buoyancy is still down there when I jump in."

From where I sit, whoever said "experience is the best teacher" was right. For instance, I think all of us know—through experience—how important "tolerance" is between neighbors. In little things too, like my respecting your right to choose a favorite beverage—and your respecting my choice of an occasional glass of beer. That way we'll swim not sink—as friends!

Track Lettermen Named

SENIORS—Roger Mead, Tom Walter, Terry Hendricks, Phil Hendershot, Dick Solarski and Bruce Antrobus.

SOPHOMORES — Craig Winters, Tom Simmons, John Britton and Bob French.

FRESHMEN — Dean Greene, Dick Golat, Phil Radant and Jack Rutherford.

Junior varsity letters went to Dan VanValkenburg, Kim Dabe, Dill Wallace and Jim Ripley.

MEAD ESTABLISHED a school individual scoring record with 135 points. Koffron ranked second with 105 and Walter was third with 85.

Coach Brazee's squad was probably the best balanced in THS history, going undefeated, winning the regionals, the Huron League title and also the all-league meet, as well as the Tecumseh Relays.

Six of the Indians qualified for the state Class B finals — Abo, Mead, Koffron, Tuckey, Betzold and Simmons.

Arlen Mead, a member of the board of education, received a plaque for his many years of assistance and encouragement to THS track and field. It was presented by the athletic department.

Three trophies, representing sweeps of the league, regional and Relays were given to Neville Hart.

10 Win Letters for THS Baseball

Ten Tecumseh High School baseball players won varsity letters this spring, announced coach Duncan Lectka.

Included were Steve Kruger, Robert Dick, Jim Curth, Mike Robison, Tim Sisson, Dave Brooks, Tim Whitney, Eugene Brion, Walt Girbach and Delbert Poskabiewicz.

Dale Ritz Wins $500 First Prize in Pin Tourney

Dale Ritz, 503 Stacey St., is $500 richer this week.

The cash came along with a trophy when Dale topped 2,500 bowlers in the fourth annual South Central tournament in Albion.

It was a singles event, with each kegler tossing five games. Dale posted an actual 1,044 pinfall (1,189 with handicap). That's better than a 208-game average.

His top line was a 257.

Hurls One-Hitter But Still Loses

Rain washed out all but one Cub League game last week, reports Russ Hyatt.

The Jaycees clipped Hodges Drug Store, 3-1, in that contest with Dean Hebb the winning hurler. He fanned nine.

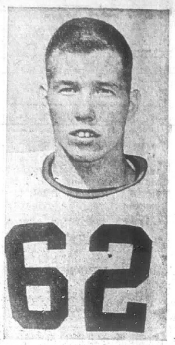
Kirk Lucas, although he struck out 10 and allowed but one hit, was the losing moundsman.

Jim Green got the lone Jaycee blow and Kim Rosacrans doubled for the losers.

Cubs Will See Tiger Ball Game

Cubmaster George Choske announced that all Cub Scouts of Pack 4 will meet in Patterson School Saturday, June 25, at 10:30 a.m. to go to Detroit for the Tiger ball game.

They are to bring $1 and a sack lunch.



ATHLETE OF YEAR — Jim "Bubbles" Curth was recently presented a plaque as senior athlete of the year at Tecumseh High. Jim was a standout football lineman on Tecumseh's championship team last fall and also a baseball regular. In basketball, he was an important cog in coach Vic Lawson's attack. "Bubbles" was also one of the most popular students to attend THS during the past four years.

NOW YOU'RE A HITTER — Carol Kapnick, center, assistant summer recreation director this year, gives one of her girl softball players some tips on batting. Getting the lesson is Shiela O'Neil, as Brenda Whelan watches. Girls practice Monday evening at 6:30. Miss Kapnick has formed one team of teen-age girls, who'll compete against squads from Deerfield, Hudson and the Girls Training School in Adrian. She would like more 11 and 12-year-olds to come out so that a Tecumseh league for this age group might be formed. Interested girls should turn out Monday.

Courses Offered at 'Pit'

The water safety program at the "Pit" will begin Tuesday, June 28, and will feature all phases of swimming from beginners through senior life saving courses.

The total program will emphasize water safety and survival techniques.

Those interested may enroll at the "Pit" during the next two weeks.

"Classes may be arranged after this week, but, with the exception of junior and senior lifesaving, this is not encouraged," said Duane Furbush, instructor.

The lifesaving classes will be scheduled Wed., June 29.

Apart from a registration fee, there will be no charge for life saving instruction.

Summer Recreation

The recreation program moved into its second week as the weather cooperated in making possible a complete program of activities.

Tecumseh's entries in the Huron Valley Babe Ruth League made their first appearance Monday evening with games at Tecumseh and Saline. The Tecumseh Americans lost to Saline, 10-5, while the Nationals played to a 5-5 tie at Saline.

Under the guidance of Clyde Locker and Spot Richardson, the Tecumseh teams are expected to perform much better as the season progresses.

These teams are being sponsored by the Tecumseh Recreation Department with entry fees being paid by the Business and Professional Women's Club and the East Side Market.

Pee Wee practice began Tuesday at Patterson and Herrick Park Schools. These sessions will continue Thursday and Friday afternoons, and boys who have not as yet registered may do so by reporting at these sites during practice time.

√

The Minor League began Tuesday as the Braves trounced the Pirates, 17-0.

Tim Dickenson went all the way for the braves, giving up five hits and striking out five. Rich Baxter let the attack on the Pirate pitching with two singles and a double.

The second game saw the Bears defeat the Yankees, 4-2, as Jim Verhage displayed multiple talents in pitching and hitting his team to a victory.

Jim struck out 13 and hit a booming triple with the bases loaded to supply the winning margin.

Joe Poley supplied the one bright moment for the losers with a triple and a walk in three trips to the plate.

Tot Lots opened Monday morning with attendance reported good at Patterson and Herirck Park. The Tecumseh Acres Lot, due to the repair work on Shady Lane, will be located at the city ground on S. Union St. next to the water works plant.

There is much interest in handicrafts, and the lot directors have had to secure more equipment to stay ahead of the children.

Linda Refner Attends Workshop at Western

It's 35th Year for Edna

BRITTON — On Tuesday, Miss Edna Miller will begin her 35th year working for Uncle Sam.

She started in the Britton post office on June 28, 1926 in the building east of the Wabash railroad, now occupied by Doug's Grill.

Miss Miller served postmaster Albert W. Lee until May 31, 1934, then Ben J. Beasley until February 28, 1954.

She is now clerk-in-charge for the present postmaster, Ronald C. Cheever.

The office was moved to the present building Jan. 1, 1956.

There have been many changes over the years says Miss Miller. Formally the mail was received and dispatched six times on the Wabash and four times each day on the Detroit, Toledo and Irontown.

One by one the trains were taken off and mail now comes four times each day by truck.

There were three rural carriers with about 25 miles each. Now there are two carriers with 61 and 63 miles.

Miss Miller has lived in Britton since 1915. She is a graduate of Britton High School.

Her hobby is raising flowers.

Her mother Mrs. E. G. Miller lives with her in her home on Osborne St.

5 Young Men Win Offices at Boys State

Four area young men won offices at the annual Wolverine Boys State on the campus of Michigan State University at East Lansing.

1. Jon Aho, mayor of the City of Monroe.
2. Bradley Bruce, city councilman of Johnson city.
3. Larry Titley, city councilman of Fillmore city.
4. James Danforth of Britton city councilman of Arthur city.

This is the 23rd annual Boys State, a government education program sponsored by the American Legion.

It is intended to help teenagers develop leadership qualities, learn the responsibilities necessary for good citizenship, and gain a greater understanding and respect for the democratic form of government.

Over 1,000 boys — considered the cream of Michigan's high schoolers—are participating in this eight-day "learn by doing" course in city, county and state government.

Under the guidance of skilled political science instructors, the boys elect city, county and state officers; learn how to draft bills, enact them into laws, then enforce and administer the laws after they are passed.

In addition, the youths attend lectures on subjects covering such widely scattered fields as criminal and civil law, conservation, traffic safety, juvenile delinquency and law enforcement.

The strictly timed schedule also calls for a full program of athletics and cultural opportunities.

Yes, some vitamins are analyzed. Over one-third of the F.D.A. seizures of health products in 1958 were vitamins or "food-supplements".

Charges were (1) mislabeling, (2) low potency, (3) false claims, and (4) contamination. Buy your vitamins at the Wright Drug Store, ALL of which are full strength and pure.

why Mercury is the better low-price car!

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:

You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier. You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).

Mercury has at least two dozen extra values. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money, too?

PRICES START $63 TO $66* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a 'stripped' Mercury. This price comparison is based on a de luxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Montereys are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, the other de luxe V-8 series in the low-price field. Come in. See for yourself.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested 1960 retail base prices for lowest-priced V-8 models.

Is Your License Right Up-to-Date?

Many citizens leave for summer motoring vacations without looking at their motor vehicle operator's license to determine if it is valid or will be valid until they return from their trip.

A recent study showed that nearly fifty per cent of drivers renewing their license in one large Michigan city had been driving illegally for from one to sixty days before they discovered that their license had expired.

Many people are not aware of the fact that they can renew their three-year driver's license 90 days before their birthday expiration date. Why not take a look at your Michigan vehicle operator's license now to be sure that it is valid?

A survey we'll vouch for

■ Surveys will prove most anything, we guess. We just read one that said people visit the neighborhood pharmacy more than any other store.

Well, we can believe that . . . we see our friends lots more often than, say, the folks at the shoe store. That's because of the variety of products we sell and the extra hours we're open.

And, of course, in time of illness we're your source of medication . . . prepared to the highest professional standards.

MRS. 'ARRIS GOES TO NEW YORK by Paul Gallico — The London charwoman's warm, tender, yet resolute nature, which enabled her to go to the elegant Dior salon in Paris, now drives her to America to reunite a child with his GI father. This is the glowing story, as only Paul Gallico could tell it of Mrs. 'Arris rougish trip to New York.

ABEL'S DAUGHTER By Rachel Maddux — A true and tender story of a friendship that defied prejudice and glowed in the wonder of human understanding in the midst of hostility.

THE WALK DOWN MAIN STREET by Ruth Moore — The setting of this novel is a charming old river town in Maine where the young McIntosh boys, their mother Susie and their grandfather Martin Hoodless; the town eccentric and the teachers at the high school are the people on Main Street, U.S.A. Having a championship basketball team put the town in a fever of excitement. It also turned their values upside down.

WHEN DOCTORS MARRY by Elizabeth Seifert — Take two people: Corliss Walker, a lovely young woman who is becoming a fine surgeon and has paid the price for it in loneliness; Cannon Penrod, a handsome doctor who gives everything to his patients and keeps nothing for himself; then put them together in a small community that is adept at spinning romances from thin air, and you'll have the making of a stirring story.

STRANGERS IN THE FOREST by Carol Brink — The year is 1908. The scene is the white pine timberland of the Idaho panhandle where the last great struggle to keep valuable and beautiful forests out of the hands of exploting lumber companies takes place. Bundy Jones finds that ideals are difficult to defend against the claims of a beautiful and spoiled woman.

VFW Auxiliary Picks Convention Delegates

Members of the VFW Auxiliary voted last week to give a cash gift which will help send their "adopted" National Home boy from Eaton Rapids to camp.

It was approved to hold one business meeting a month during July and August.

A picnic will be at Vineyard Lake in July with each member asked to bring sandwiches, table service and a dish to pass.

Plans are being made to have a joint picnic with the Post with Mrs. Billy Still, Mrs. Lloyd Stites, and Mrs. Harold Meade on the committee.

A 50-star flag is to be purchased for the new pack of Cub Scouts at Tipton.

It was announced that the National Home carnival will be July 17.

Those donating jams and jellies to the Michigan and Indiana cottages at the National Home are to bring them to the July meeting or deliver to Mrs. Warren Filter, 311 Logan St. by July 10.

Mrs. Harold Meade and Mrs. Harlon Boyes were elected as delegates to the National convention, VFW. Auxiliary, to be held Aug. 21-26 in Cobo Hall in Detroit.

Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Boyes and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger attended the District convention in Saginaw last weekend.

Any Auxiliary member who has children in the hospital should contact Mrs. Harold Warren.

Water Accidents Claim 35 Lives

With 64 water accidents claiming 35 lives and injuring 28 so far this year, the state police are urging extra care as the water sports season gets into full stride.

Of the accidents, 33 were fatals.

The 35 persons drowned included eight boat operators, five boat passengers, one swimmer or wader, one skin diver, four children who strayed from their parents and into water.

Five were suicides and five fell through ice, four into rivers, one from a bridge and one from a dredge.

Water sports activity is expected to reach its peak in the three-day July 4 weekend and the state police urge vigilant attention to safety precautions.

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Nancy Gooden and Richard Zick attended Detroit Conference Sunday and then left by bus for Lake Louise Methodist Youth Camp to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gilmore and family spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carothers in Fayette, O. They attended the wedding of her brother, Alvin, Saturday evening.

The Macon Women's Club and Britton Women's Club were cohosts for the Lenawee County Women's Clubs Federation picnic. A coperative dinner was served to 73 guests in the Macon Methodist dining room on June 16. Mrs. Mildred Netcher of Onsted, county federation president, conducted a short business meeting.

Mrs. Edward Zick was hostess for the Mary-Martha Circle on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harry Graham was appointed to work with Mrs. Ray Williams and her committee to plan the special meals. Mrs. Edward Zick is on the Kitchen Planning Committee. A discussion of doing something different from the fall bazzar and chicken supper was held. No report on the purchasing of a new sweeper for the church was given. It was suggested that the WSCS meeting held on July 26 be a picnic supper, followed by the meeting. Hot fudge cream puffs and beverage was served by the host.

The annual June Tea will be held in the Church on Tuesday, June 28, at 2 p.m. All the ladies in the community are welcome. Mrs. Russell Collins has arranged a program.

It will include selections sung by Meredith, Patty, Susie and Marilyn Morden; a piano solo by Nancy Hawkins and Jean Thomas and Mrs. Walter Damberg will give the invocation and benediction.

Bertha LaPointe will give "Reminiscing on Her School Experiences" and Mrs. Warren Van Orden will also speak.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Obey Swimming Rules

An estimated 7,000 people will drown this year in the United States, some 300 of them in Michigan alone.

Most of the individuals who become part of these dismal statistics will do so because they fail to observe 10 simple rules for swimming, reminds Edward J. Slezak, supervisor of aquatics in men's physical education at The University of Michigan.

To live longer while enjoying the popular sport of swimming, says Slezak, everybody should:

1—Learn to swim.

2—Never swim alone.

3—Refrain from swimming too soon after meals.

4—Enter the water gradually.

5—Insist on lifeguard protection whenever posisble.

6—Value the protection of others, and never call for help unless needed.

7—Listen to instructions.

8—Observe all beach and pool rules and regulations.

9—Have a boat and two good swimmers escort long swims.

10—Enjoy the sun, but avoid sunstroke

It's Million Dollar Business

On July 11, voting areas in Tecumseh will open for a vital school election.

Each eligible citizen presenting himself or herself at the polls that day will be handed four ballot.

1. Shall the schools be given another two mills for operating expenses?

2. Shall members of the board of education be granted slight salary increases.

3. Of four candidates for four-year terms on the board, which two do you choose?

4. Of nine candidates for three-year terms, which two do you choose?

The Herald will devote considerable effort in focusing attention on this election.

We're presenting each of the candidates to you, with their qualifications, several this week, the remainder in the next two issues. We recommend that you clip and save these, in case you haven't made up your mind by election day and you wish to review backgrounds and opinions of candidates.

Running this school district is big business — $1,029,000 for next year's budget. This takes capable and devoted persons. That's why your selections should be based on careful thinking. When electing people to our school board, we're placing a tremendous amount of responsibility into their hands.

As to the two-mill tax increase, The Herald has done considerable research and agrees that it is necessary.

Our district has a deficit to erase, first of all, and we can't go on forever paying interest on borrowed money, which we need to cover past obligations.

Two mills — that will bring in $68,000 — will help with the debt and eventually in the next few years, build a slight surplus. This, in turn, will be used in a remodeling program at the Junior High, which will be needed by about 1962.

Now Trustees Will Decide

An expected 400 turned out to be 125, but none-the-less, it was a successful evening.

Based on the FACT questionnaire, citizens in Tecumseh are interested in many projects. The civic center-auditorium idea ran first by a narrow margin, closely followed by facilities for the Teen Club, library, more swimming facilities.

FACT has put all of its conclusions into a comprehensive report, which was mimeographed. A copy is in the hands of each trustee of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

Final action on the projects will come from the Foundation.

School Survey Is Set

An intensive one-year study of the Tecumseh school system will be made by the University of Michigan's bureau of school service starting in September.

When completed, a report will be submitted to the board with recommendations for bettering the system.

"This comprehensive report will be invaluable," explains Supt. James McDowell, "To the board, the administration and teachers in improving the educational opportunities for the youth of the community."

Included in the survey:

1. Study of curriculum—elementary, junior and senior highs, from art through speech and 17 subjects in between.
2. Study of administrative

New Bridge To Cost $33,954

Tecumseh's new Maumee St. bridge, just north of the high school, will cost $33,954.81.

That was the lowest of four sealed bids submitted to city council at a special meeting Monday.

W. L. Eva Construction Co. of Howell was the successful bidder

Lenawee Construction Co. of Adrian, $35,352.79.

Fry Construction Co. of Lansing, $34,905.54.

The bids included removing the exisitng structure and all materials for the new one, down to two bronze plaques which will name and date the bridge.

Overall, it will be 75 feet long and 32 feet wide.

There will be a 26-foot roadway, providing for two lanes of traffic. A five-foot walk will go on the east side and a one-foot safety curb along the west.

All steps in construction, which is scheduled to be finished Dec. 1, must meet state specifications.

The Lansing firm of G. J. McLravy, consulting engineers, who specialize in bridge building, was retained by the city.

McLravy was present at the meeting and after bids had been opened, told councilmen each one should be checked carefully for possible arithmetic mistakes, which could change the totals.

Each bid was broken down into about 20 ingredients.

After McLravy and City Engineer Cal Zorn used a calculator to examine the figures, a $310 error was found in one of the higher bids and although it lowered that company's total amount, it still didn't change the order.

Simmons Ford Wins Bids on Bus Chassis

Bids were accepted Monday evening by the school board for six new buses at a total net cost of $32,588.

The Tecumseh District will be reimbursed for the entire amount by the state over a seven-year period.

Chassis and bodies for the new 60-passenger vehicles runs to $38,088. From this amount is deducted $5,500 the board received in the sale of five used buses to a firm in Indiana.

Chassis for the buses were purchased from E. L. Simmons Ford, lowest bidder. Three will have two-speed axles for longer routes and three with regular axles.

Simmons submitted a $2,748 figure for two-speed axles and $2,588 for one-speed.

Other bidders:

Schneider Bros., $2,850 and $2,690.

Tecumseh Equipment, $2,940 and $2,780.

Bodies, with curved windshields and accordian doors, were $3,680 each.

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Albert Lasker is a man you probably never heard of — yet he has contributed tremendously to shaping your way of life.

It was Mr. Lasker who helped mold the concept of modern advertising.

Until Lasker invaded the scene at the turn of the Century, advertising in printed media had little sparkle, few illustrations, abounded in words and small print.

A man of intense drive, Lasker had new, fresh ideas. As a member of Lord & Thomas advertising agency and later its owner, he had a way of selling his clients on unique campaigns.

Lasker handled Lucky Strike, Palmolive soap and other famous brands.

"Advertising is positive, not negatives," he said, "It must attack."

This is as true today, as it was years ago when Albert Lasker first made the statement.

What makes people purchase goods through advertising?

Lasker had the answer: "You have to give them a reason why. You must explain why your products are better or are for sale at lower prices."

That Lasker knew of what he spoke, we have the sobering thought that he earned $45 million over a span of about 40 years in advertising.

One of his star copy writers, John E. Kennedy, had a simple three-word definition for advertising:

"Salesmanship in print."

Using our paper as an example, the merchant who runs an ad in The Herald is placing his sales message before nearly 10,000 people.

To them, consciously or subconsciously, this is that storeman as "a salesman in print."

Its main ingredients are:

1. Headline — should be short, interesting, newsy.
2. Illustration — of the product, preferably as it is to be used.
3. Copy — short, colorful, explaining the reason why the reader should buy this.
4. Price — always, either total or what is needed down.
5. Signature — store name in contrasting type, address and phone number.

Sounds simple, doesn't it? Often times, it takes hours of labor just to make it come out simple, but the results are worth the efforts—if the product sells.

You'll note I said the headline should be newsy.

There's a good reason. Many people read their newspapers with one thought in mind: what's new?

They're not concerned whether its editorial matter or advertising, they're looking for things of interest.

If an ad's headline is newsy, it will be read and then most likely the rest of the ingredients.

Good illustrations, whether picture or drawing, also play an important part in this respect.

Four Appointed to Library Board for Coming Year

Joe Galazzi, a member of the library board, presented the request.

The resignations of Allan Seager and Miss Clara Waldron from the library board were accepted, and both were commended for their work.

Four new members appointed were Mrs. James Beardsley, the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, William Bruce, and William Wright.

They, with the present members, Mrs. Jens Touborg, Joe Galazzi and Mrs. Laine Holden, will comprise the board for 1960-1961.

60 Districts Run Programs of 10 Months

Tecumseh is joining many other school districts by adopting the 10-month-year, explains Supt. James McDowell.

Checking with the Michigan Department of Education, Mr. McDowell finds that 60 districts followed this pattern last year.

"These schools, like Tecumseh for 1960-'61, all start the day after Labor Day and run to approximately the middle of June, depending on vacation time," he explains.

"In Tecumseh, children will be in school from Sept. 6, 1960 until June 16, 1961 with a two-week vacation at Christmas and one week in the spring," the superintendent states.

Among the 60 districts on 10 months are East Detroit, Roseville, Centerline, Mt. Clemens, Utica, Frankenmuth, Port Huron, St. Clair, Kalamazoo, Birmingham, Berkley and Royal Oak.

Some others are Detroit, Trenton, Plymouth, Flat Rock, Romulus, Muskegon, Allen Park and South Haven.

Local Lads Do Well in Contest

Kent Naugle received 480 points; Robert Holmes, 475 and Don Betzoldt 470.

The winning score was 515, made by a Detroit competitor.

Chicken dinner was served to those participating after the tournament.

There Is Still an Opportunity To Register

If you plan to vote in the coming school elections and the August primary and are not registered yet, there is still time.

July 1 is the deadline for registration to vote in the July 11 school board and two-mill election.

July 5 is the deadline if you intend to vote in the Aug. 2 state primary.

Residents of Tecumseh can register in the city hall. Township citizens register with their clerks.

Janice Wagner Is Installed in Assistants

Mrs. Ben Mahrle, retiring president, installed officers of the Lenawee Assistants at a dinner meeting held June 21 at the Lenawee Country Club.

Janice Wagner, of Dr. Carl Benz office, was installed as president.

Sharon Connors and Mrs. W. T. Claxton of Dr. Claxton's office in Britton are first and second vice presidents, respectively.

Dr. Xenophon Skufis of Adrian spoke and commended the group in their work of the past.

Meet on July 6

Due to the holiday Monday, city council's next regular meeting will be Wednesday, July 6.

Rodeo Being Staged Two Days This Year

Cowboys, Indians, Brahma bulls and bucking horses will highlight the fourth annual Rodeo to be held July 3 and 4 at the B bar J Ranch northeast of Tecumseh.

Both shows will begin at 2 p.m., rain or shine.

There will be genuine Indians, representing five different tribes, including the Sioux, the Chippewa and the Ottawa.

Chief "Charlie Runs the Enemy" and his Minne Tonka Dancers from the Mobridge Reservation in South Dakota will perform.

Also featured will be the rough bucking horses.

Over 75 head of Rodeo stock from the corral of Bob Spence will be used in the show.

The B bar J Ranch is located on Pennington Rd., three miles north and three miles east of Tecumseh.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50c for children.

Kids Donate Money From Talent Show

When the laughter and hilarity had subsided, the children discovered they had collected $2 from the sale of kool aid, popcorn, and admissions, 4c and 2c.

They sent the money with Tracie Lynn Brooks to the Baptist church school for the missionary fund on Sunday morning.

Parents were delighted to attend the show produced entirely by the youngsters after three days rehearsal.

The opening number was "Yankee Doodle," sung by Steve Hallenbeck dressed in a clown suit.

A car, with Master Hallenbeck, Steve Drake, Bobbie Brooks and David Ryan as the wheels, which frequently flattened, was driven by John Drake. Bob Lapin, Suzanne Drake and Mary Sue Brooks were passengers.

Skits, pantomimes, a ghost show with strawberry boxes for tombstones, and a puppet show by Diana Devonshire and Linda Gray, were presented.

Debbie Goldsberry, Sandra Harper, Valorie Ryan, and Jackie Lapham were others who participated.

Volunteers Hold Annual Session

Annual meeting of the Tecumseh volunteer fire department will be Tuesday, July 5 at the fire house.

The city's 21 firemen will elect officers as well as first assistant and second assistant chiefs.

Dance Saturday Will Help Buy Monument to GIs

A dance—with profits going to help build a monument honoring all Tecumseh men who served their country in war-time—is being staged Saturday evening.

To be in the United Products Workers Union Hall, admission is by donation. Everyone is welcome.

Music will be furnished by the Fred Dickinson orchestra.

An aluminum house trailer is being given away at this affair.

$5,032 Would Have To Be Paid in Buying Cars

Council has asked that The Herald explain more fully bidding on two police cars for city use.

Last week, councilmen accepted a proposal from Schneider Bros. Chevrolet to "lease" two new cars at a cost of $150 a month.

This would cover all servicing, replacement of parts, but not gasoline and insurance.

Another bid came from Fisher Pontiac Motors, for two years, and would give ownership to the two cars at the end of 24 months.

Pro-rated over the two years, the cost to the city would be $139 per month. However, the city would be required to pay $5,032 of that amount immediately, then $35 monthly.

Meet For Picnic

The Past Matron's Club of the O. E. S. will hold a picnic Sunday at the Warren Benham cottage at Evans Lake.

Families are invited, members will bring table service, chicken, and a dish to pass.

To Discuss School Taxation

Tecumseh citizens will have the opportunity Thursday, June 30, to participate in the second town hall meeting this month at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

The meeting, being held to discuss school taxation, is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Featured speaker will be James Borough, financial consultant for the state department of Public Instruction.

The meeting will also include a panel discussion by Mr. Borough, James McDowell, Aden Mead, Cal Zorn, and Wilfred Waldron.

The audience will have an opportunity to talk with the 13 candidates who are running in the July school board election.

Co-chairmen of the event are Gene Tuckey and Dr. Richard Coak.

Merene Boltz Marries Archie Conkey Saturday

Merene M. Boltz and Archie J. Conkey spoke their wedding vows before 300 guests at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Boltz of 112 E. Kilbuck St. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Conkey of Caseville.

The Rev. Julian Gresham performed the ceremony before the altar enhanced with hampers of white gladioli, lighted candelabra and palms.

The princess style, full-length skirt featured seven tiers of lace forming a train. The bodice was fashioned with square low neckline, short scalloped sleeves and satin covered buttons down the back.

☆

HER FINGERTIP veil was held in place by a flowered pearl crown and she wore a pearl tear drop at her throat and pearl earrings which were the gift of the groom.

She carried a crescent arrangement of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Her two sisters, Inez Boltz and Mrs. Richard Creswell, were the bride's maid and matron of honor.

Carol Conkey and Mrs. Norman Randy, sisters of the groom, Mary Pat McCann, Dolores Willey and Sylvia Helzerman were also attendants.

All wore dresses of white silk organza embroidered with orchid roses and with a fitted cummerbund of orchid taffeta.

They carried white carnations tipped in orchid in white lace baskets.

☆

MELVIN BOLTZ served as best man and the guests were seated by Richard Creswell, Norman Tandy, Sidney Hurlburt, John Pechette, Peter Capling and Gerald T. Moore.

Mrs. Boltz wore a gown of beige linen lace over apple green taffeta for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Conkey wore a dress of medium blue with matching accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Classmates of the bride helped register the guests and serve the refreshments for 300 at the reception held in Fellowship Center of the church following the ceremony.

The table draped in white net was centered with a five-tiered cake, topped with orchid bells. Lavendar roses and tall white tapers completed the table arrangement.

☆

THE BRIDE received her bachelor of science degree in retailing in graduation ceremonies June 12 at the Michigan State University, School of Home Economics.

The groom is a student in the College of Veterinary Medicine at the U. of M.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will make their home at 126 Division St. in East Lansing.

One Balloon Released Sunday Refurned Home

Herbert Morden of Macon brought the balloon still filled with helium back to Mabel Lockwood, one of the Sunday school members who watched about 200 such balloons as they soared aloft into the wide blue yonder.

Each balloon carried the name of the church and also a verse of scripture.

Members from tiny tots to adults released the balloons following the Sunday school service.

Guests at Picnic Barbecue Chickens

Nearly 100 attended the picnic and outing of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday.

Two softball games were played, but the scores are not available.

In a greased-pig chase, Bill Pace, Ford salesman for Simmons, Inc., came up with a porker.

The business and professional men barbecued chickens on a long, open-type grill to cap the day.

Monday, July 4, is Independence Day making the coming weekend a welcome, long one. Sometimes I wonder if we really remember why we celebrate.

It was 184 years ago that the Second Continental Congress appointed a committee to draw up a formal declaration which stated that "these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states."

On July 4, 1776 the Declaration of Independence was passed. It lends a feeling of security to read the determination in the lines on the old parchment drawn up by those men who made sure Independence "with a firm reliance on the Protection of divine Providence."

For years Mr. Delayit suffered from pains and headaches. Patent medicines gave temporary relief, but each year his condition grew worse. Despite the advice of his family and friends, he neglected visiting a physician for help.
When Mr. Delayit finally consulted a Doctor, he learned that delay had given a malignant disease a firm foothold. A cure now was doubtful. Had he been wiser sooner he would have visited a physician at the very first sign of trouble and probably been cured long ago. Don't be a Delayit".

Children Study The Church

The theme, "Everyone Needs a Church and the Church Needs Everyone" was used by the Primary and Kindergarten Departments of the Vacation Church School of the Baptist and Methodist Churches.

The Junior Department theme was "The Church Around the World."

The history of the church and missionaries were studied and maps of the city were made by the students with pictures of churches to represent those located in the city.

The Junior Department, led by Mrs. Carl Hale, also made mobiles of churches. On Wednesday they toured the Baptist Church where the Rev. Blair Bashore explained the furnishings.

The Rev. Nixon explained the furnishings as the groups then toured the Methodist Church.

The Primary Department, led by Mrs. Lee Prettyman, made blocks for the nursery departments of both churches as well as pictures and waste baskets.

Mrs. Robert Connin had charge of the Kindergarten Department which studied the work of church helpers: the pastor, janitor, organist and secretary. Taking care of their own things was stressed.

These are a few of the headaches you can avoid when you do business with a local independent agent with a long and honorable record of square dealing. Call us.

+ Fifty Delegates To Attend Meeting in Briggs Stadium

The Tecumseh congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has been invited to attend a four-day Christian assembly in Detroit's Briggs Stadium, July 28-31.

Kenneth Ball, presiding minister of the Tecumseh congregation, approximately 50 delegates from the local congregation will attend.

The conference, one of 11 "Peace Pursuing" District Assemblies being held throughout the United States this summer, is expected to bring more than 40,000 ministers and their families from the north central states to Detroit.

"The purpose of the conference is to further the pursuit of peace with mankind's Creator at a time when materialism and godlessness are sweeping the earth", he stated.

The program will be devoted to Bible talks, discussions and practical demonstrations designed to aid the Witnesses in their ministerial work.

The high-light of the four-day program will be a public discourse on Sunday afternoon, "Security During 'War of the Great Day of God the Almighty' ", by F. W. Franz, Vice-President of the Watchtower Society.

All sessions are open to the public free of charge.

+ Nineteen People Attending Camp

Early Monday morning, three carloads of campers left for Webster Springs, West Virginia, to attend a Friends sponsored conference. They will return late Saturday evening.

Those attending the camp are Rev. and Mrs. Brantingham, Joyce, Madelyn, and Kenny Brugger, Jane VanValkenburg, Marilyn Johnson and Sharon Martin.

Howard Hunt, Richard Brown, Gloria Crots, Shirley Hunt, Carol McClure, Ellie Spencer, Margaret Bayless, Karen Kelly, Judy Weimer, and Mr. and Mrs. DeArle Brugger and Linda Selders.

+ Power Class Sees Slides of Germany And World's Fair

The Misses Marjorie and Carolyn Chase, Ardis Drewyor, and Marjorie Martin were hostesses for the June meeting of the Power Class of the Tecumseh Friends Church.

Nineteen class members met at the Martin home June 25 for an outdoor party. Games of badminton, volley ball, ping pong, and croquet provided activity for the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin, guests for the evening, showed their slides of Southern Germany and the Brussels Worlds Fair.

Allen Bardine was in charge of the devotions, and Dick Butler, class president, conducted the business meeting.

Refreshments for the evening included three freezers of homemade ice cream.

+ Health & Harmony

How health and harmony are gained through understanding the supremacy of God will be brought out at Christian Science churches next Sunday.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

In order to avoid any confusion or misunderstanding on the issues and candidates in the forthcoming school election I would like to state a few personal views which I would have if elected to the Board of Education.

1. THE TWO-MILL ISSUE. I am definitely against any raise of taxation in any form for any purpose at this time. The 15-mill tax limitation bill in the depression '30s was enacted to prevent the loss of its purposes by voting around it to allow additional bond issues and operating expenses and building programs that have increased taxes way beyond this point—15 mill.

2. LONGER SCHOOL YEAR. Again, I am opposed to a longer school year than the one presently in operation for several reasons. One is the fact that one of the two mills mentioned above (or ½ of the additional millage asked for) is to be used solely for the additional cost of these two extra weeks of school.

Then too I feel that time that is lost at the school operation itself could be used to more than offset anything taught in these two extra weeks.

3. GRADUATION CREDITS. I feel that an 18-credit graduation requirement is too much for most children (or young men and women). In an age when a high school diploma is a necessity we are discouraging some of our young people into quitting school in the eleventh and twelfth grade for lack of maybe one-half credit.

Some are not allowed to take extra work to make up for this credit. Some change schools and graduate, some quit and join the service and finish the hard way, other deserving students never get their diploma. This subject I think needs greater reviewing

After all Tecumseh is still a small city and we can't have all Einstein's graduating every year (and probably are lucky we don't), but I think every encouragement should be given to every child to graduate from high school.

4. BETTER BUILING PROGRAM AND USE. I believe we have wasted too much of the taxpayers money on frills and bills in our past building and use of building program. I think two gyms in one building is asinine when at the same time we need more classrooms.

We have built too many halls, entrances, waiting rooms, etc. and too few classrooms. The ordinary businessman would be bankrupt in a building and use program such as we have.

5. COMPETITIVE BIDDING. I believe in the spirit of competition. All services, materials and supplies should be purchased in such a manner as to obtain the most for the least money from the taxpayer.

6. I also believe it is time to call a halt to the reckless manner in which all Michigan schools are being run by lobbyist and personal interest groups and organizations at an expense prohibitive to the ordinary taxpayers interest. The operation of our local and state schools need to be returned to private interested interests.

7. Lets everyone vote and see how you feel.

Respectfully,
Lester A. Handy

Quo Vadis, America?

By ROYAL WELCH

The time is July 4, 1776. The place: Philadelphia. Occasion? A meeting of the Continental Congress. Purpose? To approve a document written by a 33 year old Virginia farmer and lawyer named Thomas Jefferson.

The oldest man there is Benjamin Franklin. He is 70. The youngest is 27 year old Tom Lynch Jr., a South Carolina farmer. By August 2, 1776 the document has been signed by 56 men—lawyers, physicians, farmers, soldiers, jurists, merchants, manufacturers, educators, and a brewer.

Result? The United States of America, grown, in its 184 years of existence as an organized political entity, into the mightiest nation on earth in all history.

And yet at this very time when we are perched on the pinnacle of our pomp, we are beset with doubts as to our aims and confused over our purposes. Quo Vadis, America?

Has the elimination of hardship begotten indolence of spirit? Is the attainment of luxury and well-being producing contempt for things too easily obtained? Is the reduction of working hours resulting in aimlessness?

Will our underestimation of the fierce desires among the hungry people of the world make us fat and easy prey for their paralyzing sting? Are we seceding from the human race by seeking a cozy cocoon of comfort at any cost? Quo Vadis, America?

Fifty-six men of courage and vision put their names to a document 184 years ago, and pledged their own and each others Lives, Fortunes, and Sacred Honor. Their purpose was to free themselves of tyranny and to take the helm of destiny into their own hands.

What can we do, 180 million citizens of this mighty nation now say in our purpose and what will we mutually pledge in its defense? Let us ask ourselves this question today.

Cub League Race Growing Tighter

Things are tightening up a little more in the Cub League.

Rotary and the Jaycees are still battling for the top spot, but Kiwanis and Hodges Drug Store are moving up.

Jim Green led the Jaycees as they stopped the Union, 5-3, Thursday.

Jim had two home runs. His first was a solo blow, but his second blast came with two mates aboard.

Pat Smith had two singles and Steve Ruhl doubled for the losers.

Rotary stopped the Jayees Monday by a 2-0 count, but lost on Wednesday to Exchange, 10-1.

In Rotary's victory, Randy Dotson fanned six and allowed two hits. His mound opponent, Ron Rentschler, gets the vote as the "hard-luck kid" of the loop. Ron permitted one blow, a double by Fred Wilkins, and fanned 11, yet still lost.

Exchange's Randy Work tossed a one-hitter at Rotary, set down six on strikes and banged out two singles. Henry Howard got the only hit off Randy,s single. Scott Edwards fanned six while losing.

Gordon Gibson, King Dunn and Bob Donahoe all had two singles for Kiwanis, while Ed Brazee contributed a double. Gordon was the winning pitcher, striking out 10.

Jeff Robison had two single for the Union.

Hodges broke loose with 11 base knocks to sink Kiwanis, 13-1, on Friday.

Jerry Hale has three singles and Lee Lemerand two for the winners. Allan Vallad's double and Ed Brazee's single were Kiwanis' only two hits off Bill Bartenslager, who also fanned nine.

Legion 9 Wins Two More Games

Tecumseh's American Legion junior baseball team won two of its three outing last week.

Chuck Komon hurled both victories, a 21-7 decision over Ypsilanti Sunday and a 4-2 win from Milan last Tuesday.

In the lone loss, Ann Arbor slammed out a 20-2 win on Saturday.

Cub League Boys To Sell Candy

why Mercury is the better low-price car!

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:

You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier. You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).

Mercury has at least two dozen extra values in all. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money in the bargain?

PRICES START $63 TO $66* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a "stripped" Mercury. This price comparison is based on a de luxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Mercury Montereys are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, other low-price cars such as the V-8 Furys and Impalas.

No wonder Mercury is so popular this year! Many low-price-car buyers have discovered they can get far more of everything they want with Mercury. Come on in and see for yourself!

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested 1960 retail base prices for lowest-priced V-8 models.

Herald Sponsors Cruise

Why not plan an addition to your summer vacation this summer—an all day fun trip aboard the S. S. Aquarama?

This Tecumseh Community Day Cruise from Detroit to Cleveland and back is being sponsored by The Tecumseh Herald. The 13 hour cruise is planned for August 18.

The Aquarama is the Great Lakes' newest, largest, and fastest passenger liner.

This multi-million dollar luxury passenger liner, the largest ever to operate on the Lakes, is all-steel, a city block long, and nine decks high.

The ship has all of the characteristics of a typical ocean liner, and is noted for excellent entertainment and fine food, at land prices.

☆

YOU WILL BE welcomed by the Aquarama cruise director and hostesses, who will make every effort to make you feel at home aboard ship.

There will be free recreation for all tastes—orchestras on three decks, organ music during intermissions, a strolling musical trio, two theaters, community sings, a puppet show, variety acts and many recreational games.

Or, if you want to soak up the sun, you may relax in deck chairs enjoying the cool breezes and viewing the ever-changing scenic panorama of the Great Lakes.

You will find fine food moderately priced, and available at several buffets, the soda fountain, sandwich counters or in the cocktail lounges.

☆

ESCALATORS AND elevators quickly transport passengers from one deck to another.

Cost for this continuous cruise from Detroit to Cleveland and back are $9.85 for adults and half price for children five through 11. Children under five may ride free.

The ship will leave the dock at the foot of West Grand Blvd. (adjacent to the Ambassador Bridge) at 9:30 a.m. and return at 10:30 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale at The Herald.

28 Teams Play in Mixed Derby at Country Club

Mrs. Skip Milheim and Harry Brown teamed to win Sunday's Mixed Derby Day Golf tournament at Tecumseh Country Club.

The winners finished with a net 66 strokes.

Placing second were Mrs. Willis Porter and Ollie Musch, who carded 68.

Tied for third at 72 were teams of Mrs. Earl Wood-Frank Purcell and Mrs. Bob Bowers-Earl Kotts.

Mr. Kotts turned in the fewest number of putts, 12, among male competitor.

Mrs. Dale Bower and Mrs. Marge Rohweder were tied among the girls with 15 putts each.

July 4 will be the annual Frank Smith Day at the Country Club, with a tournament for the men, starting at 9 a.m.

Rodents Can Steal Profits

Far too many farmers tolerate rats and mice on their farms because they do not appreciate how much the animals actually cost each year, according to Louis G. Hall.

Some farmers actually have been forced out of farming due chiefly to losses from rats and mice while the average annual bill for rats on a farm is $40 a year.

For example, Hall said, one poultry farmer cut his feed costs for each 100 hens by more than $60 during a nine-month period just by rat-proofing his feeding setup.

And, the Federal Food and Drug Administration, which inspects all food grains, will seize any headed for market that has been contaminated by rodents. This protection represents a loss of more than $1,000 for each seized carload.

The most effective way to end rodent loss, Hall said, is to starve the pests by taking away their food and shelter—an objective that all farmers and elevator men would be financially wise to undertake.

Such methods as cleaning up premises and storing supplies at least 18 inches off the ground, tearing down outmoded structures, protecting food and feed in rodent-proofed shelters, and using rodent-proof materials when building or remodeling, prove very effective.

The important point is to keep a continuing program which includes permanent bait stations, gassing of any outside burrows with calcium cyanide, and placing traps around and among food storage.

Easton and Welch Attend Institute

Mayor Harold Easton and councilman Royal Welch attended the 1960 Institute for Mayors and Councilmen at the University of Michigan last Thursday.

The all-day affair was sponsored by the Michigan Municipal League and covered the property tax system in Michigan, financial municipal improvements, parlimentary procedure and personal liabilities of city officials.

McKenzie Loses Driving License

John Raymond McKenzie, 27, of 506½ N. Evans St. had his license suspended this past week for an unsatisfactory driving record.

Others from Lenawee County given suspended licenses are James Angel, 38, and Anson Best, 61, of Clayton; Mathias Basques, 47, Arthur Gentry, 27, and Robert VanZandt, 32 of Adrian; Ronald Burdette, 20, of Cadmus and Albert McGill, 78, of Hudson.

Simpsons Visit Jungle Gardens

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simpson and family of 197 Burt St. visited Sarasota Jungle Gardens on Wednesday during their vacation on the Sun Coast of Florida.

Points of interest in the Jungle Gardens are the palms and colorful tropical plants where macaws, flamingos and other wildlife freely roam.

Helpful Policeman Saves The Day For Mrs. Scott

Mrs. Earl Scott, 419 W. Cummins St., was in a fix. Mrs. Scott, whose eyes are sensative to bright light, left her sun glasses in the city hall at the Clerk's office Saturday. When she phoned back to see if they were still there, the office had been closed.

So she tried the police station and Robert Purkey, who was on duty, said he didn't have a key to the office, but he'd watch for the cleaning woman.

In 15 minutes, Mrs. Scott got the call and soon had her glasses back.

"It was so kind of Mr. Purkey," she phoned The Herald, "I thought he should be given credit."

Wheat Storage Area Should Be Kept Clean

With grain harvest on the way, farmers can take a few precautions to insure good storage for the new wheat crop.

Grain should be stored in insect-free granaries, and have less than 14% moisture. Mixing a "wheat protectant" with the wheat as it is stored and fumigating the bins six weeks after harvest can also stop insect contamination.

Clean the granary now. Use methoxychlor or a pyrethrum-piperonyl butoxide mixture to spray floor, walls and ceiling. This should be done at least two weeks ahead of harvest.

After treamtent, the granary should be left undisturbed, then thoroughly swept out to remove all traces of the insecticides and the dead "bugs".

A "wheat protectant" of malation or the pyrethrum-piperonyl butoxide dusted or sprayed into the new crop can also prevent insect damage. The use of this method can protect wheat but it will not control insects once they become established in the grain.

Fumigating six weeks after harvest is a good way to keep the wheat in good shape for market and kill any insects that may infest the crop. The material to use is an ethylene dichloride-carbon tetrachloride mixture.

Fumigation can also be used on other crops such as corn, oats and rye to control storage insects.

Keeping the moisture content at 14% or below helps in controlling the grain insects. Good ventilation two weeks after harvest will help dry the wheat and keep the grain temperature down. A fan may be needed in where moisture is above a safe storage point.

Extension Folder 134, "Prevent Damage to Stored Wheat" is available from county extension offices giving full directions on getting ready for storing the new wheat crop.

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble.

See what a fresh engineering approach can do! From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or anti-freeze or radiator repairs . . . and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait!

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

An independent newspaper, published every Thursday morning at 117 S. Evans Street. Entered at the Post Office in Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Will You Be a Victim?

Two speeding cars, an over-tired or careless driver . . . suddenly, "CRASH" . . . death on the highway.

This will happen many times during the coming weekend.

Will you or members of your family be among the victims?

The Michigan Trucking Association has some words of wisdom about driving this weekend. We can learn—and possibly live—by reading them.

"We must look upon the forthcoming holiday with apprehension, because we know we will see a repetition of the bloody toll of traffic accidents which invariably attend such weekends.

"This toll represents a heartless waste, which could have been avoided by exercising man's basic common sense.

"Unfortunately, a great many drivers will attempt to do too much in too short a time. They will succumb to the temptation to drive too fast, too far. And many won't make it unless they mend their traffic ways.

"We caution all drivers to hold holiday travel to a distance which can be covered easily, at a sensible speed, in the heavy traffic which will be found on every road.

35% Go on to College

One way to measure the effectiveness of a public school system is to see how many of its products continue their education on the college and university level.

In this regard, Tecumseh ranks well, with an average of 35% of the graduates of the local high school entering places of higher education.

The Class of 1959 scored even higher than usual, with approximately 50 of 109 graduates going to college. The current crop of grads, circa June 1960, may do as well.

Qualifying for college these days is often a ticklish business. Many, who wish to go, can't get in because of poor high school grades.

It takes a well-run school system, carefully bringing along its students, offering a complete range of courses, stimulating the youth's yen for learning with better than-average instructors.

Tecumseh is fortunate. It has such a system.

One of the proofs is the large ratio of youngsters educated here who obtain college training. Another proof is that the Tecumseh system have one of the lowest absentee records in the State of Michigan, indicating that there is appeal to class work.

Of course, such specialized courses as vocal music, band and other elective offerings give added spice and purpose to the local program. These, we have long felt, are not "extras", but important parts of an over-all modern program.

As the cost of living increases, so does the cost of education.

The Herald is of the opinion that we must meet these costs, now that research and study has proved them absolutely necessary, and go along with the proposed two-mill increased operating levy.

We don't like to pay more for anything, but we think education is too precious to our community to consider cutting back. The proposed two-mill levy is the only solution.

School Taxes Brother You?

If you have some questions about school taxation, the place to be is the United Products Workers hall Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

An expert on that hard-to-understand state equalized evaluation puzzle, upon which school taxes are based, will be present. He's James Borough, financial consultant to the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

He'll tell the audience the state's side of the picture and then answer questions from local citizens.

But this is just one segment of what should prove to be an important and absorbing gathering. Kiwanis is putting on this town meeting, second of the month.

We hope that more than the 125 who attended the FACT session, will be around for this session.

Besides the financial man, all 13 candidates for the coming school board race will be present to meet the citizens from the Tecumseh School District.

A panel discussion will feature Mr. Borough, along with Jim McDowell, school superintendent; Aden Mead, school board vice-president; Cal Zorn, city assessor; and Wilfred Waldron, Tecumseh Township supervisor.

Older Teachers May Get Benefits During Summer

LANSING—All teachers eligible for social security benefits may apply for compensation for the summer months, according to Thomas J. Northey, special assistant in research for the Michigan Education Association.

Any women teacher aged 62 or over and any man teacher aged 65 or over who has met the work requirements for social security is advised to contact his local social security office at once to apply for such benefits during June, July and August.

However, teachers are not eligible if they earn more than $100 during each of these months, Northey said.

Teachers who qualify may be eligible even though they are paid on a 12-month basis since they earned the money during the school year.

June 20 Is Magic Date for Kilbourns

Mr. and Mrs. George Kilbourn, celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kilbourn, celebrating their second wedding anniversary, journeyed to Frankenmuth Sunday for dinner.

Both couples were married June 20.

After church in the evening, a few friends gathered at Willis' home to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Kilbourn and present them with gifts.
